What does the award offer?

The award consists of a full Home/EU fee waiver or equivalent fee discount for overseas students (£4,200 in 2017-18), a doctoral stipend equivalent to the Research Councils UK National Minimum Doctoral Stipend (£14,553 in 2017-18), plus a training bursary of £250 per year and Proficio funding, which may be used to cover the cost of advanced skills training.

Who is eligible?

- This award is available to UK, EU and international full-time PhD students;
- Successful international applicants will need to fund the balance of the tuition fees;
- Unless you are already on a 1+3 or Integrated PhD Programme at Essex, you must have applied for a full-time PhD or Professional Doctorate (not MPhil, Doctor of Medicine or Masters by Dissertation) at the University of Essex starting in October 2017;
- Because of the nature of the funding, students on part-time programmes, distance learning programmes and those commencing 1+3 or Integrated PhD programmes in 2017 are not eligible;
- Receipt of the scholarships is subject to applicants firmly accepting the offer of study, registering as students of the University of Essex for the 2017-18 academic year, and meeting all conditions of our offer;
- No alternative form of the scholarship is available and the award cannot be deferred to a later year from the one for which you are admitted;
Students on an existing Integrated PhD or 1+3 programme at Essex who will be entering the doctoral element of study in October 2017 are eligible to apply, but only if their first year programme has a standalone equivalent;

Applicants may only receive one award administered by the University of Essex. In the event that an applicant is already in receipt of another University award (including fee discounts such as the Alumni Loyalty Discount), the larger of the two awards will be kept and the other released;

Where a student applies for and is awarded a scholarship and subsequently obtains full external funding, the University will rescind the scholarship offer. Where partial external funding is obtained, the department may choose to continue, reduce or rescind the scholarship offer as it sees fit.

How do I apply?
If you have applied for a full time SeNSS or CHASE studentship, or our University of Essex Social Sciences Doctoral Scholarship starting in 2017-18, you will automatically be considered for our Essex Doctoral Scholarship and do not need to complete a separate application form.

If you are starting a 1+3 or Integrated PhD programme in 2017, you will not be eligible for this award. However, if you are an existing Integrated PhD or 1+3 student at Essex who will be entering the doctoral element of study in October 2017, you may be eligible to apply for this award provided your first year programme has a standalone equivalent.

If you have not applied for a SeNSS studentship you should complete the University of Essex Doctoral Scholarship online application form available via our website. Please note that you must be applying for a new programme of study at the University of Essex, starting in October 2017, in order to be eligible. Applications for the University of Essex Doctoral Scholarship must be received by the specified closing date.

How are candidates selected?
- Candidates will be selected for the award of a scholarship on the following criteria:
  - academic ability - based on previous academic qualifications, normally a Master's degree with distinction or merit;
  - research potential - based on the candidate's research proposal submitted with their application, as well as their statement on the scholarship application form; and
  - professional development potential - based on the candidate's skills, aptitudes and potential to support their department's undergraduate teaching or research activities.

When are successful candidates notified?
Successful candidates will normally be notified by our Funding Team within four weeks of the closing date for applications. Acceptance of the scholarship constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions. A scholarship will not commence until the student formally registers on a relevant programme at the University of Essex.

How will the money be paid?
Our scholarships are awarded for each year of study during the standard minimum period of enrolment for your degree. The fee element will be deducted automatically, and the stipend will be paid in three annual instalments. Awards are granted for one year in the first instance but will be renewed, subject to the award holder's satisfactory progress (as defined by the Code of Practice: Postgraduate Research Degrees), for a second and third year – up to a maximum tenure of nine terms or three years, provided the award holder is still engaged in full-time research (and excepting the circumstances stated in the section on termination, below). Where progress is satisfactory, renewal of the award is automatic. Students who wish to extend their minimum period of study will have to meet the additional costs. themselves. Students applying for a four-year PhD programme will have to meet one year’s costs themselves.

Intermission

The University expects students to complete their training in a single continuous period, and does not encourage the suspension of awards. Where suspensions are agreed, total periods of suspension must not normally exceed one calendar year during the lifetime of the award. Sympathetic consideration should be given to requests for abeyance due to personal or family reasons. The studentship end dates and expected submission dates should be amended to reflect periods of abeyance.

Illness

Payment of a studentship can continue for absences covered by a medical certificate for up to thirteen weeks within any 12-month period. If the illness lasts, or is expected to last, for more than thirteen weeks, the University should make arrangements to suspend the studentship.

Maternity/Adoption Leave

Funded students are entitled to up to 26 weeks of maternity or adoption leave on full stipend and a further 26 weeks of unpaid maternity leave. Partners are entitled to up to 10 days paid Ordinary Paternity Leave on full stipend. Partners may be entitled to up to 50 weeks of Shared Parental Leave; this may include paid and unpaid leave, depending on the individual circumstances, any paid leave should be at full stipend. There is no qualifying period for maternity, paternity adoption or shared parental leave. The University will make every effort to recover the value of maternity, paternity, shared parental or adoption funding from students who decide not to return to study after maternity, paternity, shared parental or adoption leave.

Holidays

Scholarship holders are entitled to a maximum of eight weeks’ holiday (including bank holidays and the University closure at Christmas) per annum and pro-rata. Holidays should be agreed in advance with the supervisor and, in cases where the scholar is engaged in teaching and demonstrating, with the approval of the head of the student’s department, school or centre.

Termination of Scholarship

Our University will terminate a scholarship when progress or performance is deemed to be unsatisfactory. The scholarship will be terminated if a student ceases to be registered as a student with the University, or for good cause at the discretion of our Dean of Postgraduate Research & Education, or his/her nominee for this purpose. If a scholarship is terminated prematurely for any reason, a scholar must repay to the University any monies including maintenance, travel, subsistence, fees overpaid from the date of the termination of the scholarship. If a scholar submits his/her thesis before the end of the scholarship, the scholarship will be terminated on the date of submission. If a scholar takes up full-time employment whilst in receipt of a scholarship, the scholarship will be terminated as of the first day of employment.

Transferability

Change of course within the University of Essex will not affect the continuation of a scholarship, providing that the student continues to be registered on an eligible course within the same department.

Resolution of disputes

In cases not covered by the above terms and conditions, or where a student claims exceptional circumstances, or disputes a decision not to make payments due under a scholarship, they should first put their case in writing to the Funding Team who will consider the circumstances and uphold, amend or revoke the original decision. Should a student be unhappy with this decision they should follow the university complaints procedure: http://www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/complaints.aspx

Promotional activities
By accepting the scholarship, recipients are giving the University permission to use their details for promotional purposes and may be asked to provide a case study which may be used in University publications or on the website.

The information set out above is correct at the date of publication (March 2017). The University of Essex reserves the right to make changes to the above and will notify any such changes to applicants as appropriate.
