

Creating the 'Other' Programme

Welcome Address, by Alison Rowlands, Head of the Department of History, University of Essex

The 'Other' and national identity

Chair: Dr Jeremy Krikler, Senior Lecturer, University of Essex

- Malte Hinrichsen (University of Essex), The Black Servant Stereotype in the U.S, France and Germany as Reflected in the Advertising Campaigns of Uncle Ben, Sarotti and Banania
- Antje Friedrich (University of Bayreuth), The 'Other' from within: Afro-Germans as a Scapegoat for post-WWII German Society
- Christopher J. Wright (King's College London), The Creation of Indians in Canada: The Nation-State, Identity, and Aboriginal People's Resistance
- Sivamohan Valluvan (University of Manchester), The Conceit of Civic Nationalism: Illusions and Opportunities of a Post-Ethnic Europe

The 'Other' and crime

Chair: Dr Peter Gurney, Senior Lecturer, University of Essex

- Elliott Hicks (University of Essex), Reefers, Rhythm and Race: Becoming a Cannabis User in London, 1947-1952
- Guy Woolnough (Keele University), "I saw the defendant on Brough Hill. His movements were suspicious": How the Police in Victorian Cumbria identified and dealt with problems
- Eleni Liapi (University of York), "Basiliskes of a common wealth": Rogues as 'Others' in early modern London's cheap print

The 'Other' and gender

Chair: Dr Alison Rowlands, Head of the Department of History, University of Essex

- Sara Régnier-McKellar (University of Essex), Manhood and Humour in the construction of the 'other' during the British Civil Wars
- Kristen Brill (University of Cambridge), Exposing the Seedy Underbelly of Slavery: The Concept of the 'Other' in United States Civil War Narratives
- Patrick Glen (University of Sheffield), Ziggy Stardust and the Music Press: Negotiating Transgressive Male Sexuality

The 'Other' and colonialism

Chair: Professor Edward Higgs, Graduate Director, University of Essex

- Joanna Frew (University of Essex), The Other in India and the Scottish Highlands: Traditional Societies and Improvement
- Aaron McGaughey (University of Nottingham), The Irkutsk Cultural Project: 'Other' peoples in late-Imperial Siberia, 1860-1917
- Jane Berney (Open University), The Colonial 'Other': The Contagious Diseases Acts in Hong Kong
- Jennifer Reeve (University of East Anglia), Perceptions and Prioritisation: The Colonial Office, Colonial Populations and Jewish Refugees

Keynote address by Dr John Bulaitis, Senior Lecturer, Canterbury Christ Church University