Introduction

A very warm WELCOME to the Department of Psychology, and thank you for choosing to study a Postgraduate Degree with us at The University of Essex.

We are especially pleased to greet those of you who are new to the country, and have chosen the UK, the University of Essex and the Department of Psychology to continue your studies. Wherever you are from, we hope that you will enjoy your studies with us, and that you take every opportunity to get the most out of university life.

As you will discover, the Department provides a vibrant and dynamic place in which to study. We hope that you make full use of our excellent research and computing laboratories, and that you are soon fully engaged in your studies. As you will experience, we provide a research-led education: recent research informs Psychology at Essex at every level from our undergraduate degree schemes (BSc and BA), to MSc degrees and PhD degrees. You will receive up-to-date courses taught by well-qualified, highly-knowledgeable and highly-motivated staff. As student members of the department, you will play a vital role in contributing to our thriving research environment. You will invest time, effort, intelligence, creativity and scholarship into your research project work, and under expert supervision, you will contribute to some truly ground-breaking research. Indeed, Psychology at Essex was ranked 13th= out of all UK psychology departments for the overall quality of our research in the latest Research Excellence Framework report (REF2014), and student projects contributed enormously to advances in our knowledge and contributed to our excellent research publications (our publications were rated 8th in the UK in the REF2014).

Our MSc in Psychology degree is fully accredited by the British Psychological Society (BPS), such that our graduates (with a pass or higher) are eligible for the Society's Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership (GBC). We hope that you will take full advantage of the high quality postgraduate education and facilities that we provide. You may wish to help us positively in this by getting involved as a student representative for your scheme and year group, where you can contribute through the Postgraduate Staff Student Liaison Committee (SSLC), to help us develop further the learning experience of our students, and to help us respond to changing needs and opportunities.

We look forward to meeting you all during the year. We are sure that you will find your studies both challenging and rewarding. We wish you every success in your studies.

Professor Paul Hibbard, Department of Psychology
About your Student Handbook

This handbook gives you essential information about the Department of Psychology and the University.

Other helpful sources of information are available at www.essex.ac.uk/myessex and www.essex.ac.uk/students. Our friendly departmental staff are also here to help and you can find their contact details in this handbook.

At our three uniquely intimate campuses we celebrate diversity and challenge inequality. Whatever your background, race or sexual orientation, you’re part of a vibrant community that lives, learns and plays together.

1.2 Your timetable

You can view your timetable at: www.essex.ac.uk/timetables (you will be prompted to login using your Essex username and password). Once you have chosen all your modules and received confirmation, they will appear on your personal timetable. You may find that the first week of your timetable is blank if you do not have any course commitments in Welcome Week. You can also access your timetable on most mobile devices including smart phones and tablets.

1.3 Link to myEssex

myEssex is your online account. Use it to see your timetable, keep your personal details up-to-date, see how you’re doing on your course, let us know if you’ll miss a lecture or class, contact the Student Services Hub and much more. https://www.essex.ac.uk/myessex/

2.3 Departmental Resources

The Laboratories

The Department has excellent learning resources and facilities for our students. We have custom-built laboratories and first class equipment. The laboratories are on Floors 1 and 2 of the Psychology Department and are open to undergraduates. They house a large number of computers, each supporting word processing, internet, statistics, spreadsheet and presentation software.

Laboratory opening hours: MONDAY TO FRIDAY 9.00am to 5.00pm

Use of psychology laboratories (1.702, 1.703, 1.704, 1.705, 2.708)

Your University ID card should give you access to these labs. If you experience any difficulties please contact the technicians in 2.712. Alan Brignull is available between the hours of 9:30 and 13:00; Monika Steinke is available between 12:00 and 3:30.

Computers and experimental booths in labs on Floors 1 and 1 and a half are available for use by students from 9 am to 5 pm providing that the rooms are not required for teaching or testing. The booths in 1.704 and 1.705 can be booked up to 2 weeks in advance using booking forms posted on the doors. It should be noted that both labs have timetabled taught modules running throughout the year and information giving open access times will be posted on the entrance doors. Do not enter when a class is in progress. Any enquiries regarding the use of the psychology labs should be addressed to the Chief Technician (Steven Brewer, 2,712, sbrewer@essex.ac.uk).

For the convenience of others and yourself please be aware that there are a few rules relating to Lab use:

❖ No food, drink or chewing gum.
❖ Please do not prop the door open.
❖ Save your work regularly onto your M drive. (File saved to the hard drive may be deleted)
❖ Do not install anything onto any computer.
❖ Please report faults to one of the Technicians, and fill in the fault form on the wall.

Blank CDs, DVDs, and USB memory sticks can be purchased from the Copy Shop Counter, located on Square 4.

The Psychometric Store

The Psychometric Store is in Room 2.711A on Floor 2 of the Psychology building and is administered By Alan Brignull in Room 2.712. You may borrow items from the Psychometric Store only with permission from your lab tutor or project supervisor. The store contains a wide range of equipment, headphones, questionnaires and psychometric tests, voice recorders and stop watches.

Most items in the store are available on a weekly loan basis but certain heavily used items will shortly be available on a monthly loan basis. Requests to renew the loan period must be made by contacting Mr Brignull. Please e-mail Alan Brignull at least five working days before you require extending a loan in case the item needs to be recalled. Requests for loan of equipment, laptops, IT and AV equipment should be addressed directly to the Technicians in room 2.712.
2.4 Our location

Colchester Campus, Department of Psychology, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester CO4 3SQ

Departmental website address
http://www.essex.ac.uk/psychology/default.aspx

Departmental Facebook page
https://www.facebook.com/PsychologyatEssex

Undergraduate & Postgraduate Administrative Offices opening hours are MONDAY TO FRIDAY 9.30am to 4.30pm

The Administrative Offices are situated on the right as soon as you enter the Psychology Building from the podium level of Square 1. 3.702 is the Undergraduate Office and 3.704 is the Postgraduate Office. If the Postgraduate office is closed, please ask the in Undergraduate office for assistance.

Technical Services opening hours are MONDAY to FRIDAY 9am to 5pm.

Technical support is available from room 2.712. There are two part-time Technicians that cover support between 9:30am to 3:30pm. The three Senior Technicians are available between 9am and 5pm.

Photocopying

Undergraduate Students should obtain a copy card from the circulation desk in the Library. For Undergraduate PS300 Projects, MSc, Phd and Staff photocopying is available in the Department on request from the Technical Services team.

Printing

Students can buy printer credit from the IT Services helpdesk/Library/campus shop for use in University IT Services computing labs on campus. Printing for Psychological Teaching and Research is available to all students using the Departmental Psychology Labs, printing to the Psychology Labs printer. Responsible printing only relating to your Psychology course or research should be undertaken, using double sided and N-up printing where possible.

Noticeboards

The Postgraduate noticeboards are situated on level 3 outside of the Postgraduate Administration Office. You will find second hand books, welfare information and a lot more. Keep an eye on your notice board plus the others around the Department.
2.5 Your Personal Tutor

All taught postgraduate students have a personal tutor who you’ll meet soon after you’ve arrived, and who you’ll meet regularly throughout your course. Your personal tutor is there to help you feel connected to The Department, and is someone you can talk to if you have questions about your course or encounter any difficulties which affect your studies. Your personal tutor may also recommend other support services on campus that might be able to help. If you’re unsure who your personal tutor is, please look on myEssex or ask the Graduate Administrator.

2.6 How we will communicate with you

The Department will communicate with you using notice boards, facebook, hard copy letters, Moodle and even occasionally text messages (for example, if a lecture is cancelled at short notice). However, our primary method of communicating is to e-mail your Essex e-mail account. You are responsible for checking your account frequently and acting on messages that we send to you. Please do not ignore them! If you are not sure whether or not you need to take action please e-mail us to check.

For further details on this please see Academic conduct: http://www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/regulations/general.aspx

2.7 Department Annual Prizes

The Department awards prizes for the highest mark achieved in the Research Project module, the ‘MSc Psychology Prize’ is awarded for the best dissertation undertaking by an MSc Psychology student, with the ‘Robert Ferry Memorial Prize’ awarded to a student undertaking an MSc in Cognitive Neuropsychology or Cognitive Neuroscience.

2.8 Departmental Seminars

Research Seminars provide a vibrant and intellectually rich research-intensive ground for both academics and students. Leading researchers with an international reputation are invited, in our weekly Department seminars, to present cutting-edge, state-of-the-art research in their field of expertise. Titles and dates will be announced near the beginning of each term. A brief outline of each talk will be posted online (http://www.essex.ac.uk/psychology/news_and_seminars/seminars.aspx) closer to the event and circulated via email the week before. For the academic year 2017-2018, these will take place on Tuesdays at 16:00 in 1.702.

As part of a continuous research-led educational programme in our Department all undergraduates and postgraduates are very welcome and particularly encouraged to attend our Research Seminar events. In addition, the seminars might be presented by members of the Department including postgraduate research students. This might be a good opportunity for you to discover your own research interests, familiarise yourself with ongoing research in the Department, and may be helpful when deciding how to rank your Research Project supervisor preferences. Following the seminar, a drinks and nibbles session with the speaker is generally held at 5pm in the CBS reception area providing a friendly environment to discuss scientific matters with our guests. You are very welcome to attend.

2.9 Participation in research

Masters students are not required to participate in ongoing research in the department. However, it is expected that you will help your fellow students doing MSc Research (PS900 & PS934) projects by participating in current research. Through the web-based sign-up system you will also find paid opportunities to participate in research ongoing in the Department. In general, willingness to participate in research will help students gain insight into problems of method and technique and to gain valuable understanding of what can be expected from the participants you will use in your own research work.
3. Learning and Teaching

3.1 Learning, Teaching and Independent Study

The Department of Psychology fully embraces our diverse student population and strives to ensure that all of our students achieve their full potential. We aim to design and deliver pedagogy, curricular and assessment to engage students in learning that is meaningful, relevant and accessible to all. We embrace individual differences as the source of diversity that can enrich the lives and learning of others.

3.2 Moodle and FASER

We use Moodle as our online learning environment, to enhance face-to-face teaching. It lets you get to course materials, and has built-in features to enhance learning such as discussion forums, chat facilities and wikis.

FASER is our online coursework submission and feedback system. Use it to check coursework deadlines, upload coursework and receive electronic feedback all in one place.

Only upload PDF or Word documents (.doc) to FASER, unless you are specifically asked for to upload a different kind of file (e.g. a Powerpoint presentation) for a particular piece of coursework.

3.3 Course structures

Postgraduate programmes 2018-2019;

- MSc Cognitive Neuroscience and Neuropsychology
- MSc Psychology
- MSc Research Methods in Psychology

Each programme for Undergraduates and Postgraduates is made up of Core, Compulsory and Optional Modules.

Core: This module is ‘core’ within the course structure. It must be taken and passed for the student to progress to the next stage or pass the course. No failure is permitted (e.g. PS900, PS900, PS934)

Compulsory: This module must be taken, but there may be limited opportunities to proceed or be eligible for an award if it is failed

Optional: Permits students to choose this module from a list. Treated as a Compulsory Module, it must be taken, but there may be limited opportunities to proceed or be eligible for an award if it is failed
MSc Cognitive Neuroscience and Neuropsychology

Studying both cognitive neuroscience and neuropsychology will give a thorough grounding in the scientific investigation of the neural mechanisms underlying human behaviour and the effects of brain injury on cognitive function. You will be taught the theoretical and biological foundations of cognitive science, and undertake advanced training in statistics and neuropsychological research methods.

Students must attend Core and Compulsory modules. They must then choose 2 modules to attend from the below list of Optional Modules.

MSc Psychology

Our MSc Psychology is an advanced fast-track conversion course that combines the award of a Masters with eligibility for the Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership (GBC) with the British Psychological Society. The GBC is the minimum academic qualification required to enable you to work as a professional psychologist, so passing our course demonstrates that you have studied and acquired an advanced understanding in Masters-level study in psychology.

Students must attend Core and Compulsory modules.

Careers and Employability

You may also attend some Careers and Employability sessions alongside the BSc Psychology Undergraduates. These are sessions are voluntary. Information about these sessions will be sent out by the Graduate Administrator at the start of the year.
MSc Research Methods in Psychology

The aims of our MSc Research Methods in Psychology are threefold: firstly, to provide an opportunity for advanced study in psychology that will extend your theoretical knowledge; secondly, to develop your critical awareness of psychological science in relation to its philosophical and biological contexts, and in relation to research in the natural and social sciences; and, finally, to provide you with knowledge and skills that prepare you for an academic career, as well as a wide range of alternative careers, and ensures you are widely sought by employers.

Students must attend Core and Compulsory modules. They must then choose 3 modules to attend from the below list of Optional Modules.

Programme specifications

Programme specifications provide key information; such as the structure and aims of your course, as well as the knowledge and skills you will develop. The learning outcomes are categorised into knowledge, intellectual, practical and key skills, and are linked to the aims, learning outcomes and assessment on the modules you take. The relevant Programme Specification for your course and stage of study will be available to you when you log onto either myEssex or eNROL.
3.4 Changing your degree and maximum period of study

If you are thinking about changing course we recommend that you speak to someone in your schools/department as soon as possible. They will be able to advise you if there are any specific requirements for the course you are looking to change to. If the course you are looking to change to is within a different school/department, then you should also speak to someone in that department.

There are deadlines in place for when you need to change course by, so please make sure you are aware of these deadlines before requesting to change. Further details on changing course and the relevant deadlines can be found at www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/changing-course.aspx or by visiting your Student Services Hub.

Investigate your potential new course by looking at course information on the department’s web pages, talking to students on the course and speaking to tutors. You should also look at our Rules of Assessment for the new course to check whether there are any course-specific requirements.

If you want to change your mode of study from full-time to part-time, you should discuss this with our departmental staff. If this is possible, you will need to make a formal request using the online Change of Mode of Study form which you can find here: www.essex.ac.uk/esf/

You should discuss your thoughts about changing course with someone in your school/department/centre (your Personal Tutor or the Graduate Administrator). If your new course is in a different department, you should also speak to someone in that department.

Changing your mode of study may affect your immigration status and you may need to contact the Home Office or make a new Tier 4 application.

Please read carefully our guidance on visas and course changes here: www.essex.ac.uk/immigration/studies/changes

If you want to make a formal request for a course change, you should do so via the online Course Change form available here: www.essex.ac.uk/esf/

3.5 Information about Modules

Module enrolment

All students will have access to a list of any optional modules when you log in online to make your selection. The University do their best to make a wide range of outside options available, but if there is a timetabling clash with a compulsory module then you might be asked to select a different optional module. You will be able to find detailed information on all the modules here: http://www.essex.ac.uk/modules
Please find a list of all of the Postgraduate Psychology modules below;

Changing optional modules

It is usually possible to change modules up to the end of the second week of the Autumn Term and Spring Terms. If you are not sure which modules to take you could attend lectures for several different modules before making your final choice. If you do decide to change, this is what you have to do within the first two weeks of the Autumn Term or Spring Term.

For more information go to information on changing modules at the start of the academic year: www.essex.ac.uk/modules

Requesting a class change

Students are automatically assigned to classes based on availability by the Central Timetabling Office and in the attempt to produce a clash free timetable for every student.

In special circumstances students may request a change in their class allocations – for example, if you have childcare or caring commitments, work commitments, attendance on other courses of study or for medical reasons. Permission to change to an alternative class or lecture is agreed at departmental or school level and the right is reserved to refuse permission to change. The above list is not exhaustive, and we understand there may be other genuine reasons for changes. Your Department may ask for evidence to support your change of class request. Please note class change requests are subject to availability within other classes. Contact the Graduate Administrator to request a class change.
3.6 Listen Again

Did you miss something? Our Listen Again digital recording service lets you listen again to lectures so you grasp every detail. Available in teaching rooms or lecture theatres where you see the sign.

Listenagain.essex.ac.uk/

3.7 Your Summer project

In your final term as a Postgraduate you will complete a research project (PS900 or PS934). You will be allocated a supervisor for this project (during the Spring Term) who will guide you through the process. This module is coded PS900 or PS934 in the Department of Psychology and is co-ordinated by the Director of Postgraduate Taught Education.

For more information on PS900 & PS934, please see the Postgraduate Assessment Guide.

3.8 How the Department offers an inclusive learning experience

The University of Essex, in conformity with the intention of its Charter, confirms its commitment to a comprehensive policy of equal opportunities within the University. It aims to create the conditions whereby students and staff are treated solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential regardless of gender, colour, ethnic or national origin, age, socio-economic background, disability, religious or political beliefs and affiliations, family circumstances, sexual orientation or other irrelevant distinction. The University is committed to a programme of action to ensure that this policy be fully effective.

3.8.1 Information for disabled students

We would encourage all new students with a disability, long term medical condition, specific learning difficulty or mental health difficulty to disclose and register with the Student Services Hub so that we can plan how best to support you in your studies.

You can find out about the support we offer here:
www.essex.ac.uk/students/contact/help.aspx

UK students may be eligible for a Disabled Students’ Allowance grant. See our webpages for more information, including application forms and key changes:
www.essex.ac.uk/students/disability/funding.aspx

3.8.2 Information for international students

We are proud to be a global community and we recognise that living and studying in the UK may be very different from your own country.
Essex has a wide range of support covering academic and health and wellbeing issues. Our friendly and professional staff will be able to guide, give advice and assist you during your time at Essex.

You can find helpful information here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/new/international/default.aspx

If you are studying on a Tier 4 visa, don’t forget to read section 8.4 Tier 4 Information of this handbook which has further information and links.

3.8.3 Information for Mature students

We appreciate that studying as a mature student can present challenges. This is particularly true if this is your first experience of higher education and you have other commitments and responsibilities to meet such as work and family. We want you to be aware of the support available so that you can make the most of your time at Essex.

You can find more information here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/groups/mature-students.aspx

3.9 Student representation, Student Staff Liaison Committee, Student Assessment of Modules and Teaching and Student Surveys

Student feedback is a vital part of the University's approach to quality assurance and enhancement. It is therefore important that you are given the opportunity to feedback and that you take time to feedback to the University. You can do this in a number of ways:

You can contact (or volunteer to be) a student representative who represent the voice of fellow students in departmental Student Staff Liaison Committees (SSLCs) and other University level committees.

www.essexstudent.com/representation/coursereps/
www.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/student_rep.asp

Every year, we will ask you to complete the Student Assessment of Module and Teaching (SAMT). This survey will be summarised and discussed by SSLCs and will inform reports written by us for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.

3.10 Library Services

At our Colchester Campus, the Albert Sloman Library on Square 5 has a variety of study spaces over six floors, including 24/7 facilities and group work areas. The Library offers a wide range of learning resources, online and in print, with a dedicated Helpdesk, overnight chat service and the opportunity to book appointments with your Subject Librarian to help you through your studies and beyond.

libwww.essex.ac.uk

The library has a team of Subject Librarians who can help you to find appropriate resources for your assignments and show you how to search effectively. They can also provide advice on referencing and how to avoid plagiarism, using reference management software, and evaluating sources. Your Subject Librarian is Greg Cadge, contact him at greg.cadge@essex.ac.uk or use the Book a librarian form on the Library website to get in touch.

For guidance in relation to third-party proofreading of student work: www.essex.ac.uk/proofreading
3.11 Attendance monitoring (Count-me-in) and absence from sessions

Your attendance at lectures and classes has a significant impact on how successful you are in your studies. At Essex, we monitor attendance so we can identify students who may need guidance and support.

You’ll need to record your attendance at teaching events using the electronic reader in the teaching room. Just ‘tap in’ for every timetabled teaching event you attend.

You should not tap in for someone who is not attending the class; and also you should not tap in if you then immediately leave the teaching event. This may result in disciplinary action being taken against you.

If you lose your card or it is faulty, go to the Student Services Hub to get a new card (a fee may be applicable). If you attend a teaching event but are unable to record your attendance as you don’t have your registration card, you should speak to a member of administrative staff in your department. In the case of a lost card, your department will normally record you as present for up to seven days.

For more information on attendance, and for links to forms and guidelines visit: www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/attendance.aspx

If you need to report an absence from a teaching event, test or exam due to medical reasons, representing the University in British Universities and Colleges Sport (BUCS), or in regional, national or international competitions; being selected or training for a national sports team e.g. Home Nationals or Great Britain, on a University organised placement, or other circumstances you should do so by completing the relevant form in myEssex for a notified absence. Your department consider the reasons and may record it as an authorised absence. Be aware that you may need to provide evidence, including medical evidence if relevant.

Please contact your Personal Tutor, department staff or the Student Services Hub for advice and support, particularly if you are going to be absent for several weeks.

LEAP (Learner Engagement Activity Portal)

Learner Engagement Activity Portal is our student centered, personalised engagement tool. LEAP focuses on what you do rather than who you are. It’s expected that the more engaged you are with your studies the more likely you are to achieve your academic goals.

LEAP calculates and shows you your average engagement for the last seven days based on your usage of each university resource (Faser, Moodle and Listen Again as well as attendance and University computer logins). By providing you with this information, we hope to empower you to become more effective, independent learners and achieve your study goals.

Log into LEAP via Pocket Essex, My Essex or leap.essex.ac.uk.
4. Assessment

4.1 Rules of Assessment and Credit Accumulation

The Rules of Assessment are the rules, principles and frameworks which the University uses to calculate your course progression and final results. Some departments also have variations to the main rules, which you can find listed on our website above. If you have questions about whether a variation applies to you, contact your department.

Each module you will take will have a credit value which you are awarded if you successfully complete the module. You need to obtain a certain amount of credits to be awarded your degree, and the Rules of Assessment give you more information about this.

These decisions are made by the Board of Examiners who use the Rules of Assessment to decide:

- you can be awarded credit for the modules you have studied
- you have done enough to move on to the next stage of your course (if you are on a course which lasts more than one year)
- you need reassessment
- whether you have done enough to pass your course
- whether you are eligible to receive a merit or distinction

The following is only a summary of the key points. You should read the rules and make sure you understand them. If you need advice, ask your personal tutor, departmental administrator, or SU Advice.

If you fail your course you are not able to repeat it. The Rules of Assessment for Postgraduate Taught Awards only allow reassessment for up to a maximum of 60 credits worth of modules for taught masters degrees. The Board of Examiners will inform you if you are eligible for reassessment once it has considered your marks.

If you fail your dissertation you may be permitted by the Board of Examiners to resubmit your work, provided you meet the criteria as set out in the Rules of Assessment for Postgraduate Taught Awards. Alternatively, if you have obtained enough credits in your taught modules, you may be eligible for another award such as a postgraduate diploma or certificate.

You can decide if you want to accumulate credit by taking individual modules with the aim of achieving a postgraduate award; this is called Modular study. There are opportunities to achieve postgraduate awards through credit accumulation study in an increasing number of departments, as an alternative to standard full or part-time study.

Individual modules can yield 15, 20, 30 or 40 credits depending upon which department you are studying in. (Psychology modules are 15 or 30 credits) Each award has a defined structure, normally consisting of a combination of core, compulsory and optional modules, and requires a specific volume of credit to be achieved:

- Graduate/Postgraduate Certificates - 60 credits (all taught module credits)
- Graduate/Postgraduate Diplomas - 120 credits (all taught module credits)
- Masters Courses - 180 credits (normally 120 credits of taught module credits and a 60 credit dissertation or equivalent)

Credit is awarded for successful completion of individual modules. Students taking a credit-accumulation route of study register for the separate modules individually and accumulate the required volume of credit for the relevant award, including the dissertation if necessary. You will be given a different registration number for each module.
The Rules of Assessment are different when you study individual modules; make sure you check the relevant Rules of Assessment for the award you’re studying towards.

You will have a maximum of six years to study (this is usually five years with a sixth year for a dissertation). We measure the six years from the first module you register on towards the award. You can find out more information here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/pgt/modular and you should talk to your tutors about fees, and applying accumulated credit towards an award.

4.2 Extenuating Circumstances, withdrawing and intermitting

Extenuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which cause you to perform less well in your coursework or examinations than you might have expected. In general, extenuating circumstances will be of a medical or personal nature that affect you for any significant period of time and/or during the assessment.

You need to submit your form by the deadline given here – www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/general/assess-rules.aspx

You will not get extra marks if you hand in an extenuating circumstances form. Boards of Examiners use other methods to take into account extenuating circumstances, such as permitting further reassessment opportunities for uncapped marks.

You should read the guidance on extenuating circumstances very carefully before submitting your form and evidence. Seek advice from the Students’ Union Advice Centre (www.essexstudent.com/services/advice_centre/) or the Student Services Hub (www.essex.ac.uk/students/contact/default.aspx).

Thinking of leaving or taking a break from your studies?
You may experience doubts at some point during your studies, if you’re thinking about leaving Essex, we’re here to support you and give you the advice you need to help you make an informed choice.

Intermission is a temporary withdrawal or leave of absence from the University and provides you with the opportunity to take a break from your studies. Normally, this is for reasons beyond your control (e.g. health or personal problems) although other reasons are permitted. Intermission must be approved by the University first, so if you are thinking about intermitting, we strongly advise you to contact your department and your Student Services Hub to talk to one of our advisers.

You should also read our guidance on intermitting very carefully at www.essex.ac.uk/see/intermit. If your intermission is agreed to, we will also give you the advice and support you need to help you carry on with your studies.

Withdrawal is the formal process for permanently leaving your programme of study and the University. If you are thinking of withdrawing, you should seek advice from your Department or the Student Services Hub at the earliest opportunity. It is very important that you discuss your circumstances with the University and follow the formal procedure for withdrawing. If the university is not formally notified, then you may risk continuing to incur further tuition or accommodation fees. More advice and information is available at www.essex.ac.uk/see/withdraw.

4.3 Re-marking of coursework

You have the right to request a re-mark of your coursework under certain circumstances which your department will advise you on. The University Marking Policy can be found here: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/examination_and_assessment/marking_policy. You will need to complete a form and be aware that marks can go down as well as up.
4.4 Moderation, second marking policies and External Examiners

The University policy on moderation can be found as part of the Marking Policy. When work is moderated, it means that a second member of academic staff takes a random sample of the work for a particular assessment and reviews the marks given. A moderator would not change the individual marks for the work, but would liaise with the first marker to agree whether marks should be reviewed across the particular piece of assessment or module, which may lead to marks being adjusted.

Second marking is where a second marker marks the work but has access to the first marker’s marks and/or comments.

External Examiners are usually academics from other universities but may be from industry, business or the profession depending on the requirements of the course. They give an impartial view of the course and independent advice to ensure that courses at the University meet the academic standards expected across UK higher education. External Examiners write reports on the courses and modules they are responsible for which are made available to you via your department. You can find the name and institution of the External Examiner for your course and modules by looking on the Programme Specifications Catalogue and the Module Directory.

You can find out more about how the University uses External Examiners by following this link: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/external_examiners

Please note: you may not contact External Examiners directly under any circumstances. If you have any concerns about the quality and standards of your course, please contact your student rep, your Head of Department or the Students’ Union.

4.5 Appeals, complaints, and fitness to practise

Appeals on academic grounds can be made following the meeting of the Board of Examiners and the publication of your results. Be aware that there are strict deadlines for the submission of the appeal form and your evidence.

We strongly advise all students thinking about making an appeal to contact the Students’ Union Advice Centre.

You may not appeal against academic judgement. This means that you can’t appeal against the marks you have been given by a Board of Examiners without evidence of extenuating circumstances or procedural irregularity.

More information about appeals, including the deadlines and forms to complete, can be found online at: www.essex.ac.uk/see/appeals

Making a Complaint: The University is a large community engaged in many activities of both an academic and non-academic nature. From time to time, you may feel dissatisfied with some aspect of your dealings with the University and, when that happens, it is important that the issue is dealt with constructively and as quickly as possible without risk of disadvantage or recrimination.

A complaint is defined as the expression of a specific concern about matters that affect the quality of a student’s learning opportunities (this is in line with the QAA Quality Code for Higher Education, Chapter B9: Academic Appeals and Student Complaints). The University aims to resolve complaints quickly and informally.

You can find the complaints procedure and the forms here: www.essex.ac.uk/see/complaints
Fitness to practise is only applicable to students on certain professional courses (such as nursing or social work). If this applies to you, you will have been told by your department. You can find the full Fitness to Practise procedure online at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg

4.6 Academic Offences Procedure

The University expects students to act with honesty and integrity in relation to coursework, examinations and other assessed work, and to follow our conventions for academic writing (including appropriate referencing of sources) and ethical considerations. If you don't meet these expectations, then you may be charged with having committed an academic offence, a matter the University takes very seriously.

It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the regulations governing examinations and how to correctly prepare your coursework. An academic offence can take place even if you didn't mean to commit one, and examples include plagiarism, falsifying data or evidence, and communicating with another candidate in an examination. You may also be accused of an academic offence if you repeat work previously submitted for an assessed assignment without full acknowledgement of the extent to which that previous work has been used; in other words, if you hand in the same or a very similar piece of work to one that you have already submitted.

If you aren’t sure what the conventions are, particularly in relation to referencing, you should ask your department, contact the Talent Development Centre, and also refer to 7: Referencing and good academic practice in this handbook.

More information about academic offences and getting support can be found at: www.essex.ac.uk/see/academic-offence

4.7 Ethics

All research involving human participants, whether undertaken by the University's staff or students, must undergo an ethics review by an appropriate body and ethical approval must be obtained before it commences. You can find our Guidelines for Ethical Approval of Research Involving Human Participants here - www.essex.ac.uk/reo/governance/human.aspx - along with the Ethical Approval application form.

‘Human participants’ are defined as including living human beings, human beings who have recently died (cadavers, human remains and body parts), embryos and foetuses, human tissue and bodily fluids, and personal data and records (such as, but not restricted to medical, genetic, financial, personnel, criminal or administrative records and test results including scholastic achievements).

Your supervisor for your PS900/PS934 Dissertation project will apply for Ethics approval for the project that you undertake.

4.8 Publication

The Department encourages publication of high quality data generated in final year research projects (e.g., in PS300; PS900; PS934). If and how such publication should occur is at the supervisor's discretion of the project. We propose that students and supervisors take detailed notes to avoid misunderstandings about how ideas were generated and how much each party contributed to the research project.

As for authorship on any potential future publications, the Department follows current APA guidelines.
5. Coursework

5.1 Assignment and essay length

Marking penalties may be applied to projects, essays or laboratory reports that exceed the designated length. Therefore, the word count should always be considered a maximum number of words. Note that the word count is for the main body of the text and does not include coversheet, abstract or references. There is no mark penalty for pieces of coursework that are too short, but bear in mind that a very short piece of coursework is unlikely to contain all of the points that the assessor is looking for.

5.2 Coursework submission

The Department of Psychology is fully compliant with the University’s on-line coursework submission system FASER. All Postgraduate students will be required to submit their coursework assignments (including all projects, lab reports and coursework essays) electronically. For some coursework you will also be asked by the tutor to submit a hard copy. This system is accessible via the portal myEssex, but is also accessible through the website: https://www.essex.ac.uk/e-learning/tools/faser/students/ and a getting started guide is available at: https://www.essex.ac.uk/e-learning/tools/faser/students/Help.aspx

The system is password protected, so you will need to log in with your Essex username and password. The very first time you will access the server you will be required to read the advice on plagiarism, therefore you will be redirect to the University’s website on plagiarism. Read everything carefully before you proceed. You will see a list of all the modules that you are registered for and a list of all the coursework assignments and their deadlines. You can upload your coursework either from campus or from off-campus, and keep old copies prior to submission to be replaced by revised copies later.

Assignments and deadlines

For each assignment you will be given a specific submission date. The deadline for the assignment to be uploaded to FASER or handed in is always 12 noon of the given day.

You can find the specific dates your assignments are due in FASER and in module outlines or handouts.

University policy states that coursework marks should be made available to you within 20 University working days of the submission date. University working days do not including Bank Holidays or Christmas shutdown. This means you could get marks and feedback during the Easter and Christmas vacation

If it becomes necessary to make some variation to the schedule due to unforeseen circumstances, you will be updated via your Essex e-mail.

Full details of the coursework will be provided in the module outlines of individual modules that will be distributed during the first lecture. Coursework Tests will be taken under examination conditions and take place at the time indicated in your hand-out (and shown on your Timetable), and Coursework Assignments will normally be a piece of written work (e.g., essay or lab report) that is submitted through the on-line Coursework Submission (FASer) system.
5.3 Details and samples of coursework

Samples of coursework will be provided where appropriate by module staff. External Examiners are able to view coursework as part of their role in assessing the Department’s marking procedures. The Graduate Administrator will email any relevant students if and when it is necessary to recall hard copies of coursework.

5.4 Return of coursework policy

Your coursework should be returned to you with a mark, the initials of the marker, and feedback. If your work is being marked and returned electronically you will receive an e-mail when it is ready to view. If your coursework is being marked in hard copy, you should collect it as soon after it becomes available as possible, and certainly well before two weeks after you were notified (by e-mail) of its availability.

This is important because (a) you can get timely feedback that may help improve other assignments, (b) you can get a gauge as early as possible as to the quality of work that you are submitting, (c) you can gain additional feedback from the marker, if necessary, and finally (d) you may appeal against your coursework mark, but only within two weeks of the work being available for collection.

5.5 Late coursework policy

There is a single policy across the University for the late submission of coursework. All coursework submitted after the deadline will receive a mark of zero unless satisfactory evidence is provided of extenuating circumstances that indicate that you were unable to submit the work by the deadline. No extensions will be granted in advance. Please see the website for more information on the policy and process for submitting extenuating circumstances to support a late submission claim.

www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/late-submission.aspx

Dissertations or equivalent are not counted as coursework and are therefore not covered by the policy on late submission of coursework. Students can request an extension to submit their dissertation if they find that, due to extenuating circumstances, they will be unable to submit the dissertation by the published deadline.

More information about extenuating circumstances relating to late submission of coursework is available at: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/late-submission.aspx

5.6 Essay writing support

All students in the Department, whether undergraduate or postgraduate, can access the support of the Talent Development Centre. One-to-one sessions with an academic skills tutor are available to anyone who feels they will benefit. The Talent Development Centre Helpdesk operates from the Silberrad Student Centre on the ground floor. They are open 10am - 4pm, Monday to Friday. You can drop in and talk to someone about the support on offer.

5.7 Anonymous marking policy

All coursework which contributes to your final module mark should be marked anonymously where it is practical to do so, where this is not possible, departments will inform you in advance of the assessment task.

www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/default.asp
5.8 Reassessment in coursework

If the Board of Examiners has required you to complete essays or assignments that you have failed, the Graduate Administrator will send you a letter with further information. Please check your Essex email account regularly once your results have been published. If you haven’t received anything within three weeks of the results being published, you must contact your Department.

5.9 Referencing in coursework

Drawing on the wide range of reading you do around your subject area, and demonstrating how you have used this to develop your knowledge and form your own views, is a key aspect of your coursework. It’s essential that you reference your source material so it’s clear where the information has come from, and to avoid any misunderstanding over whether you are presenting ideas as your own. (see Academic Offences Policy section 7.3). For further details please refer to the section on referencing in the Assessment Guide and Section 7 in this handbook.
6. Exams

6.1 Examination regulations

The General Regulations which govern examinations can be found online, namely under Regulations relating to Academic Affairs: www.essex.ac.uk/governance/regulations

Attendance at examinations is compulsory. For exams that are more than an hour long, you will not be allowed to enter the examination room if you arrive later than 55 minutes after the start of the exam. If your exam is only an hour long, you will only be admitted up to ten minutes after the start of the exam.

6.2 Access to exam scripts

If you want to see your exam script, you should normally make the request within four weeks of the exam to the department which is responsible for that module. The department should either: let you see the script in the presence of one of the staff responsible for teaching the module or give you a copy or summary of the examiners’ comments on your performance.

6.3 Calculators and Dictionaries

If you are allowed to use a calculator in your examinations, the only models you are permitted to use are the Casio FX-83GT PLUS or the Casio FX-85GT PLUS.

A limited number of Casio calculators will be available to borrow on the day of your exam from the Exams Office on a first-come, first-served basis, on production of your registration card. Please note financial calculators will not be available.

6.4 General information about summer exams and examination results

You can find your personalised exam timetable online here - www.essex.ac.uk/examtimes the exam timetable will be published on the date shown at www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/dates-and-timetables.aspx

You must bring your registration card and exam entry form with you to the exam. You will not be allowed entry without them. Remember to check your exam entry form carefully and contact the Examinations Office if there are any errors.

You can download a guide to examinations here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/schedule.aspx

6.5 Anonymous marking policy in examinations

All formal examinations at the University of Essex are marked anonymously.
6.6 Reassessment in examinations

You can find information relating to resitting exams at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/resits.aspx

Remember that reassessment in examinations (and coursework) carries a fee.

You can find more information relating to resitting exams at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/resits.

6.7 Referencing in examinations

You should reference your source material so it's clear where the information has come from, and to avoid any misunderstanding over whether you are presenting ideas as your own. For further details please refer to Section 7.
7. Referencing and Good Academic Practice

7.1 Importance of good academic practice

Respecting authorship through good academic practice is one of the key values of higher education in the UK.

The University takes academic offences very seriously. You should read the sections of this handbook which refer to referencing, coursework and examinations very carefully.

Referencing is a key scientific skill. It is how you will acknowledge all sources used within a piece of work. You must reference all works used directly (quotes) and indirectly (paraphrasing and summarising). Referencing allows you to give credit to the researcher’s concepts and ideas, demonstrate your breadth of reading and knowledge on a subject, direct readers to your sources, and avoid plagiarism. You should always use the best available sources of evidence, such as peer reviewed journals and recognised books. To find out about your departmental referencing style, American Psychological Association (APA) and for help with referencing, visit the library website: libwww.essex.ac.uk/referencing.htm

7.2 Where to seek guidance

The Talent Development Centre provides online courses and guides to help you fully understand what is required from you. You can find out about the full range of workshops and resources that are available to you by visiting https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/study-resources/tdc/. You can also complete the online Academic Integrity course at moodle.essex.ac.uk/course.

You should read the sections of this handbook which refer to referencing, coursework and examinations very carefully. Failure to understand the academic conventions may result in you being found to have committed an academic offence (see section 4.6 Academic Offences Procedure).

Remember, if you have any questions about referencing you can ask our academic staff, or staff in the Talent Development Centre.

Please refer to the Psychology Postgraduate Assessment Guide for further details on referencing.

7.3 The University Academic Offences Policy

Please see section 4.6 and remember that the Academic Offence Procedure applies to all students www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/academic-offences.aspx
8. You Matter

Practicalities: Getting Started and I.T Information

8.1 Registration, enrolling and transcripts

All new and returning students are required to register at the start of each academic year. The process for new students includes activating an IT account, completing Pre-Arrival Online, and attending the University’s main registration event.
New students: www.essex.ac.uk/students/new/registration.aspx

Returning students are required to complete Online Registration. In addition to this, returning students who hold Tier 4 visas are required to complete a document check in person at the University’s main registration event. Returning students:
www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/registration.aspx

8.1.2 Module enrolment

Students registered on programmes of study leading to a degree may have options to select as part of their course structure. The eNROL system is an online tool to review and select available modules specific to a particular course and year of study. All new and returning students should use the online system prior to the start of each academic year. Returning students will access the system from the April preceding the next academic year. New students will access the system from the end of August. Departments will approve student selections within a few weeks of eNROL use and timetables will take module enrolment into account when planning for the next academic year. Early module enrolment will ensure students know which modules to attend and where the lectures and classes are held.

8.1.3 Award documents

As your studies draw to a close, and once your exam board has met, it takes up to five working days for your results to be confirmed. You will be sent an email to inform you when the results are live on a password protected web page. Graduating students will receive a degree certificate at Graduation.

8.2 Find Your Way and room numbering system

Find Your Way is our interactive campus map app. Download it to help you find any location on campus and get directions quickly and easily. There’s also a handy web version: https://findyourway.essex.ac.uk/

If you’re looking for a specific room, follow these rules.

If the room number has three parts and the first is alphabetical eg TC.1.20 then the room is in one of the outer buildings. The format is building.floor.room. The first part indicates the building - "TC" is the Teaching Centre and "LH" is the Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall. The second part tells you the floor and the third the room number. For example, LH.1.12 is Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall, floor 1, room 12.

If the number has three parts and the first contains numbers and letters eg 5N.7.16, then the room is in square 4 or 5. The format is entrance.floor.room. The first part tells you the square and corner (eg 4S is the south corner of square 4), which matches the labels on the entrances (eg door 4NW is next to The Store). The second part is the floor and the third part the room. For example, 5NW.6.12 is in the north-west (NW) corner of Square 5 (entrance "5NW"), floor 6, room 12.
If the number has two elements and the second element has three digits eg 4.722, the room is in the Maths/Social Studies/Rab Butler/Square 1 building area. The first number shows the floor and the last three digits show the room number.

Also... if the last three digits are 700-799 the room is off Square 1, and if the last three digits are 500-599 the room is in the Square 2 area (Computer Science). For example, 5.512 is room 512, floor 5.

8.3 IT support, wifi, email account, free MS office, computer labs, m:drive

Visit our website to set up your IT account and password, register an external email address and passphrase and request a reminder for a forgotten passphrase: www.essex.ac.uk/it/getaccount.

You must change your password within four weeks of your account being created, and then once every four months after that. The easiest way to change your password is online at: www.essex.ac.uk/password

Once you’re set up, you can access email, log on to lab computers, connect to eduroam wi-fi and much more.

As part of your Office 365 email account you get 1TB cloud storage space for all your documents with OneDrive. OneDrive lets you create, edit, and share documents online. You also get at least 300 MB of local storage, known as your M: drive. You can access this by going to ‘My Documents’ on any lab computer.

Visit the IT Services website for helpful information, including how-to guides, answers to frequently asked questions, and links to video screencasts. www.essex.ac.uk/it

If you can’t find what you’re looking for, or if you need to talk to someone, then you can get help from the IT Helpdesk in the Silberrad Student Centre. Open Monday to Thursday 8.30am to 6.00pm, and Friday 8.30am to 5.45pm.

TF.2.03, Info Point, Learning Hub in Southend. Open Monday to Friday 8.30am – 6.00pm

Library, Main House, Hatfields, Loughton. Open Monday to Friday 10.30am – 5.30pm

If you need to use a computer on campus our computer labs are the perfect place to study or work. Many labs stay open until late and some are open 24/7. Information on computer lab locations, opening hours, real-time availability, study group pods, software, computer servers and assistive technology please view: www.essex.ac.uk/it/services/computers-and-software/default.aspx

8.4 Tier 4 & Immigration Information

If you are a citizen of a country that is not part of the European Economic Area or Switzerland it is likely that you will require a visa to enter or remain in the UK to study. The University must ensure all students hold the right to study in the UK throughout their studies and there are regulations regarding your Immigration status. For Tier 4 students, the Home Office attach conditions to your Tier 4 leave that restrict study, work and access to state benefits, some nationals have to register with the Police. The University has many duties as a Tier 4 sponsor and must ensure we remain compliant in order to retain our Tier 4 licence. Find out more on the University’s website at: www.essex.ac.uk/immigration/ and www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/regualtions
8.5 On-campus facilities

There is a broad range of facilities to support your living and learning experience at our Colchester Campus – including study-based services like the IT helpdesk and group study pods, but also various food and drink venues, three banks, a general store run by the Students’ Union, a printing and copy centre, market stalls each Thursday, a Post Office, launderettes, and much, much more. Full details on all on-campus facilities feature on our student webpages and in the campus guide you received with your welcome information when you joined us as a student member.

10.6 Health and safety on campus

Our campuses are generally very safe environments. We want to ensure that things stay this way. In order to achieve this we work closely with local agencies including the police and borough councils. Take a look at our website for general advice and information:
www.essex.ac.uk/students/experience/safety.aspx

Please read the emergency evacuation notice in your accommodation, work or study location for fire safety procedures. If you have a permanent or temporary disability that may mean you have difficulty in evacuating one or more areas, you can arrange for a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan (PEEP).

11.4 Students’ Union

We’re famous for our Students’ Union at Essex, and for good reason. Here you’re not just a member of a normal Students’ Union, you’re part of a family. We’re here to cheer you on as you walk into exams and to help you absolutely destroy the competition in interviews and land your dream job. The Student’s Union is run by students for students, and you have the ability to shape what we do. From suggesting what we serve in our venues, to changing aspects of your course, we are here to represent you and work with you to make amazing things happen. There are opportunities to join 45 different Sports Clubs, to get involved with our BUCS team which offer a wide individual championships programme of activities taking place across the year and lots of competitions take place on Wednesdays and weekends, or if you don’t want to commit to a regular team check out our Just Play Programme of activities.

We have 120 existing Societies where you can meet people with similar interests, challenge yourself with something new or, if you can’t find what you’re looking for, start your own society!
Furthermore, we have our very own letting agency SU Homes designed to offer help and support for students to find off campus accommodation.

11.5 Alumni

Essex is forever and although your time here will fly by, you’ll be part of this place for life. When you graduate, you’ll get an alumni card and join a community of 100,000 fellow graduates around the world. We’d love to keep in youth and invite you to our alumni events, networking and volunteering opportunities, as well as offer you special alumni benefits. http://alumni.essex.ac.uk/home

11.6 Departmental Psychology Society

The Psychology Society is a University society that encourages students to join and to get involved with its activities. It is run for students by students. It is a great way to meet other students who share an interest in psychology as well as offering various social events. They also provide a small selection of books that can be loaned to its members. If you would like to get involved, please contact the Student Union.

11.7 Job references: Requesting references from members of staff

If you require a personal reference, always ask permission from a member of staff before giving their name as a referee. You should consider from whom it is most appropriate to request a reference and who will be best equipped to evidence your character and performance in the subject.

For example, final year project supervisors, year organisers, core course supervisors are likely to be more suitable than lecturers that have taught you on a first year option course. Every reasonable effort will be made to meet a request for a reference for a student who has undertaken study within our School, within a minimum period of three years following his/her departure from the University. Requests received outside of this time scale may, of course, be met if a member of staff is equipped with the necessary information on the student and is willing to provide a reference. In the case of research students, it would be normal to expect to provide a reference for a more extended period of up to ten years.

It is helpful if you can provide the member of staff with details about the course or job you have applied for and, if relevant, a CV or other summary of your qualifications and experience. Please try to ask for references in good time – It is not always possible for a member of staff to write a reference immediately.

Copies of references

A copy of any reference provided will be retained within our Department for no longer than three years for taught students and ten years for research students. If a reference is retained beyond this timeframe, our Department will seek explicit consent from the student concerned. Read the outline of University policy on the writing and retention of references: www.essex.ac.uk/dsh/studentreferences

11.8 What comes next?

Choosing to be a postgraduate research student at Essex is one of the few decisions in life that’s black and white. Our research degrees include PhD, MPhil, MSc, MA and MD, and our culture of world-class research provides an outstanding and supportive environment in which to undertake your research study. If you decide to stay on for further study with us, you’ll have a great opportunity to study a challenging course within a research-intensive and supportive environment. You’ll develop knowledge in your chosen area and learn from some of the top academics in the field, while becoming a valued member of our postgraduate community. Explore our courses on our coursefinder, and find out more about the value of being a postgrad.

Academic career advice (for students)

Are you thinking of pursuing a career in academia, or would you like more information about this kind of career? If so, you can get in touch our Academic Careers Advisers, Dr Vanessa Loaiza (v.loaiza@essex.ac.uk) and Dr Andrew Simpson (asimpson@essex.ac.uk). Of course, you may also approach other members of staff, such as your tutor or project supervisor. They will be more than happy to answer your questions and give you advice.

Do you find yourself excited to learn about psychology research? Do you enjoy reading research articles and find yourself eager to know about the results of a study? Do you enjoy statistics (even if you are sometimes intimidated or find it difficult)? In general, are you passionate about finding out first-hand the factors that shape human behaviour and cognition? If so, you may want to consider an academic career!

A career in academia allows you to teach and do research in the area of psychology that you love alongside other colleagues who are just as passionate as you. An environment that is stimulating, challenging and exciting coupled with following one’s passions can lead to a long and rewarding career.

Undergraduate students who are considering an academic career are encouraged to speak to the academic career advisers: Dr Andrew Simpson and Dr Vanessa Loaiza. It can be overwhelming to plan your path toward an academic career, and they are here to help you how to best sort out the steps and answer your questions. To get started, check out the following road map (and keep in mind there are many, many sub-goals for each step, so don’t get overwhelmed!):

Step 1: Is an academic career right for me?

A first step is to gain as much experience as you can with psychology research. Dr Simpson encourages students to attend as many research seminars and read as many primary research articles as you can to get a feel of your favourite areas. Can you see yourself doing this kind of research as well? Similarly, Dr Loaiza encourages you to gain experience by becoming active in doing research. The department’s Research Experience Scheme (RES), Undergraduate Research Opportunities Programme (UROP) and Frontrunners all allow students to gain knowledge and experience of doing research while being guided by a supervisor on a variety of different topics in psychology. These experiences will help you determine if you feel really committed to an academic career as well as make your application for graduate study even more competitive.

Step 2: Graduate study

You will need to do graduate study for an academic career. You may choose to do a Masters before a PhD or go straight to a PhD program. There are different methods to accomplish this:

- Apply for PhD positions that are advertised online on academic job websites, such as http://www.jobs.ac.uk/phd
- Independently identify a supervisor who is enthusiastic to support your PhD studies and develop a project together

Whereas funding often accompanies the former method, applications for funding are often required for the second method via Research Council competitions.
Step 3: After Graduate study

Post-doctoral positions are often required for continuing on in academia. Similar to the PhD, the two main methods of securing a position are to:

- Apply for a post-doc position advertised online on academic job websites
- Independently apply for fellowship funding after having identified a supervisor who is happy to have you join his/her team

If you would like to acquire a first experience of research, or to develop your research skills further, there are many research schemes (paid and unpaid) for which you might like to apply.

- Research Experience Scheme (RES); https://www.essex.ac.uk/psychology/careers/research-experience.aspx
- Frontrunners and frontrunners plus; https://www.essex.ac.uk/frontrunners/

We hope you have an amazing year in the Department of Psychology
