SCHOOL OF SPORT, REHABILITATION AND EXERCISE SCIENCES

Postgraduate taught

STUDENT HANDBOOK 2018-19

1. Section 1: Introduction

Welcome to the School of Sport, Rehabilitation and Exercise Sciences (SRES) within the Faculty of Science and Health at the University of Essex. The school opened on the 1 August 2017 and is the seventeenth School to be established within the University, and the first new School for nearly ten years.

The School integrates the disciplines of Physiotherapy and Sports Therapy with Sports and Exercise Science and Sports Performance and Coaching. Our goal is to become a 'player' on both a national and international stage and bring an integration of the different disciplines to create cutting-edge teaching and research programmes, with real world impact. Our aim is to make a difference.

The school is situated on level 3 of the new Essex Sports Arena and has an enviably sized postgraduate room and social space, as well as a fully functioning Sports Therapy Clinic. The purpose-built sports facility houses new and expanded teaching laboratories and dedicated office spaces for all SRES staff, including the main student Office.

Our School has a diverse range of staff reflecting the range of provision we offer. Staff hold academic and professional qualifications which enable them to deliver the highest quality of applied health rehabilitation, sport and exercise science education. We were placed in the top 20% in 2014 for research quality/intensity and in the top 10% for student satisfaction in the recent (2018) NSS survey.

We have two research groups: SPF (Sports Performance and Fatigue) and HEAL (Health Exercise and Active Lifestyles). These groups have international expertise in pacing and competitive performance in middle-distance and endurance sport, training physiology, gait mechanics, biomedical optics, disability and Paralympic sport, performance-enhancing drugs, leadership, social support, green exercise, paediatric exercise science, cardiovascular health and rehabilitation. Members of the teaching team have also attended the Olympic Games, World Championships, European Championships and the Commonwealth Games in sports science and sports medicine support capacities, and other team members currently work at national and international level in various sports.

As a student we are keen that, when you leave our School, you will be highly employable and live by and exhibit the behaviours and values expected of a professional within the work place. Consequently, we will try and keep everything we do relevant to the real world in which you will be seeking employment.

You will have many opportunities to provide views on your experiences and we will provide feedback about the information we gather and how we have responded to your suggestions. I hope you will enjoy the time you spend with us in our School. Whether you are joining us for the first time or re-joining us after your summer break, you have made a great choice coming to the University of Essex. I am confident you will have a very positive experience and we hope you will embrace the opportunity to study in a supportive environment that values critical inquiry and the challenges of delivering sport, rehabilitation and exercise science to the highest standards.

2.9 Using mobile phones, smartphones, laptops and tablet PCs

The school asks that students are respectful of lecturers and others when using devices. This will include as a minimum switching mobile phones to silent (the preference being to switch them off) and not accessing them in class, other than identified needs due to unforeseen circumstances or as part of the learning activity. If the former reason, this should be discussed with the lecturer prior to the start of the session. Laptops and tablets may be used for note taking with the lecturer's permission.

Your course's learning outcomes are set out in Programme Specifications. They are categorised into knowledge, intellectual, practical and key skills, and are linked to the aims, learning outcomes and assessment on the modules you take. You can measure your progress against the outcomes, for example when reviewing coursework feedback, and they can be used to guide you when undertaking independent study. Specific module learning outcomes are available within the individual module guides. These are available on the Moodle site relating to your course.

3.4.4 Study by Credit Accumulation (Postgraduate)

The study of individual modules over a period of time, in which the credits obtained are accumulated and used towards approved university award in a manner that differs from full-time and part-time awards.

You could register on one or more stand-alone credit-bearing modules, and accumulate academic credit. Academic credit is awarded upon successful completion of each module. If you have been admitted to one or more individual modules, you may decide to use the credit towards an award, such as a Postgraduate Certificate, Postgraduate Diploma or MSc. You could apply to register for the award provided the relevant set of modules for the award had been taken.

The maximum period for completion of studies using credit accumulation is six years (normally five years to complete all taught elements and a further one year to complete the dissertation (or equivalent). The maximum period of study would be measured from the point at which you first registered for a module that contributed to the award. Further information about study by credit accumulation can be found at https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/credit-accumulation.asp. For SRES courses that are registerable with a professional regulatory body, the timescale for completion is usually within five years. For specific information please contact the relevant programme director.

A copy of the module map for your programme can be obtained from your programme director or programme administrator.

3.4.5 Accreditation of Prior Learning (APL) Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning (APEL)

The University has an APL/APEL procedure by which applicants may apply to have their prior learning assessed and accredited towards the relevant degree programme or module of study. The APL/APEL procedure normally operates during the admissions process and the relevant Admissions Officer is responsible for its operation. The published procedure is available https://www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/Admissions/default.asp.

3.5 Changing your degree

Changing your course

If you are thinking about changing course, we recommend that you speak to someone in your school/department as soon as possible. They will be able to advise you if there are any specific requirements for the course you are looking to change to. If the course you are looking to change to is within a different school/department, then you should also speak to someone in that department.

There are deadlines in place for when you need to change course by, so please make sure you are aware of these deadlines before requesting to change. Further details on changing course and the relevant deadlines can be found at www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/changing-course.aspx or by visiting your Student Services Hub.

Investigate your potential new course by looking at course information on the department's web pages, talking to students on the course and speaking to tutors. You should also look at our Rules of Assessment for the new course to check whether there are any course-specific requirements.

If you want to change your mode of study from full-time to part-time, you should discuss this with our departmental staff. If this is possible, you will need to make a formal request using the online Change of Mode of Study form which you can find here: www.essex.ac.uk/esf/

Changing your mode of study may affect your immigration status and you may need to contact the Home Office or make a new Tier 4 application.

Please read carefully our guidance on visas and course changes here: www.essex.ac.uk/immigration/studies/changes

If you want to make a formal request for a course change, you should do so via the online Course Change form available here: www.essex.ac.uk/esf/

3.6 Maximum periods of study

University of Essex awards are subject to a maximum period of study, within which an award must be achieved. The maximum period of study is set from the date when a student is first admitted to a postgraduate programme and changes of course, repeat years and periods of intermission are normally included within the maximum period.

Transfers of programme are still included in the original maximum period unless they involve moving to or from a 4-year course. Full details of the maximum period of study permitted for University awards can be found in the section of the Rules of Assessment: www.essex.ac.uk/dsh/ugrulesofassessment. View Programme Specifications online at: www.essex.ac.uk/programmespecs.

3.7 Module Information

3.7.1 Module Enrolment

In the School of Sport, Rehabilitation and Exercise Sciences, not all students have optional pathways. Those who do should discuss their options with their Programme Director if needing clarification. If students wish to change their options during the year they should again discuss this with their Programme Director. Where applicable, optional module choices can be made on eNROL www.essex.ac.uk/enrol/home/home_phase1.asp

Please note that if you are on a modular programme and you decide to take fewer or more modules and are being funded by your employer it is your responsibility to make sure they are aware of the change you have made. If you are considering changing Programme, you should approach your Programme Director in the first instance.

It is essential that students complete module enrolment and keep the School informed of any changes in their module enrolment since this forms the basis of their examination entry.

3.7.2 Core, compulsory and optional modules

All modules within your course are assigned the one of the following statuses:

- Core must be taken and must be passed;
- Compulsory must be taken, but some condonement of fails may be possible;
- Optional you have a choice of which module to take from a designated list. Some condonement of fails may be possible.

There are a maximum number of credits that can be condoned and 'core' modules cannot be condoned. You should see the Programme Specification for your course to see which modules are 'core', and refer to the Rules of Assessment for your course for any specific requirements.

3.7.3 Module Directory

Detailed information about each module can be found in the module directory: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/modules/default.aspx

3.7.4 Reading lists

Please refer to our Moodle site at: https://moodle.essex.ac.uk/course/index.php?categoryid=14 for details on reading lists.

3.8 Listen Again

Did you miss something? Our Listen Again digital recording service lets you listen again to lectures so you grasp every detail. Available in teaching rooms or lecture theatres where you see the sign. listenagain.essex.ac.uk/

The University of Essex supports reasonable adjustment and is, therefore, committed to providing a Listen Again service for students. The Listen Again service will provide a resource of recordings of lectures delivered throughout your programme of studies. Recordings are usually available to students 24 hours after the lecture took place and continue to be available for 2 years.

Your Tutor may 'edit' recordings, but you should assume that all lectures will be recorded and available as they occurred. In consequence, you should be aware when volunteering personal information relevant to the topic under discussion during the lecture that this will also be recorded and available on-line.

3.9 Supervision of student research projects

Your course may require you to submit a dissertation or research project. Specific information about content, outcomes and submissions requirements is available in the course module guides as they may differ in the School.

3.10 Essex Abroad, terms abroad and opportunities

Broaden your horizons! There are many opportunities for Essex postgraduate students who wish to study in the United States (including Hawai'i), Australia, Canada, Europe, Hong Kong, Japan, Latin America, the Middle East, New Zealand or Russia, for one term or one year as part of their University of Essex programme of study.

We have exchange agreements with a wide variety of universities and can help students to select the most appropriate destination. Study abroad can enhance your CV and gives you valuable experience of another culture and way of life. Spending an extended period of time in another country provides an unparalleled opportunity to see a side of life which tourists never encounter. It is also true that employers value international experience in today's global economy.

Any student interested in applying should consult the Departmental Study Abroad Officer in the first instance for approval in principle.

For further information, contact Study Abroad Office, Room 5S.7.27, email: saoadmin@essex.ac.uk

3.11 Placement information

Placement information is published at http://www.essex.ac.uk/hhs/placements/default.aspx

3.12 Job references: Requesting references from members of staff

If you require a personal reference, always ask permission from a member of staff before giving their name as a referee. You should consider from whom it is most appropriate to request a reference and who will be best equipped to evidence your character and performance in the subject. Failure to request may mean that a reference is not forthcoming as personal information cannot be divulged without the permission of the person to whom the reference applies.

For example, final year project supervisors, year organisers, core course supervisors are likely to be more suitable than lecturers that have taught you on a first year option course. Every reasonable effort will be made to meet a request for a reference for a student who has undertaken study within our School, within a minimum period of three years following his/her departure from the University.

Requests received outside of this time scale may, of course, be met if a member of staff is equipped with the necessary information on the student and is willing to provide a reference. In the case of research students, it would be normal to expect to provide a reference for a more extended period of up to ten vears.

It is helpful if you can provide the member of staff with details about the course or job you have applied for and, if relevant, a CV or other summary of your qualifications and experience. Please try to ask for references in good time – It is not always possible for a member of staff to write a reference immediately.

Copies of references

A copy of any reference provided will be retained within our School for no longer than three years for taught students and ten years for research students.

3.13.1 Disability and emotional wellbeing

We would encourage all new students with a disability, long term medical condition, specific learning difficulty or mental health difficulty to disclose and register with the Student Services Hub so that we can plan how best to support you in your studies.

You can find out about the support we offer here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/contact/help.aspx

UK students may be eligible for a Disabled Students' Allowance grant. See our webpages for more information, including application forms and key changes: www.essex.ac.uk/students/disability/funding.aspx

3.13.2 International students

We are proud to be a global community and we recognise that living and studying in the UK may be very different from your own country.

Essex has a wide range of support covering academic and health and wellbeing issues. Our friendly and professional staff will be able to guide, give advice and assist you during your time at Essex.

You can find helpful information here - www.essex.ac.uk/students/new/international/default.aspx

If you are studying on a Tier 4 visa, don't forget to read section 8.4 Tier 4 Information of this handbook which has further information and links.

3.13.3 Mature and part-time students

We appreciate that studying as a mature student can present challenges. This is particularly true if this is your first experience of higher education and you have other commitments and responsibilities to meet such as work and family. We want you to be aware of the support available so that you can make the most of your time at Essex.

You can find more information here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/groups/mature-students.aspx

3.14 Library Services

At our Colchester Campus, the Albert Sloman Library on Square 5 has a variety of study spaces over six floors, including 24/7 facilities and group work areas. The Library offers a wide range of learning resources, online and in print, with a dedicated Helpdesk, overnight chat service and the opportunity to book appointments with your Subject Librarian to help you through your studies and beyond. libwww.essex.ac.uk

The library has a team of Subject Librarians who can help you to find appropriate resources for your assignments and show you how to search effectively. They can also provide advice on referencing and how to avoid plagiarism, using reference management software, and evaluating sources. Your Subject Librarian is Greg Cadge (Colchester) greg.cadge@essex.ac.uk or use the Book a librarian form on the Library website to get in touch.

For guidance in relation to third-party proofreading of student work: www.essex.ac.uk/proofreading

3.15 Attendance monitoring (Count-me-in) and absence from sessions.

Your attendance at lectures and classes has a significant impact on how successful you are in your studies. At Essex, we monitor attendance so we can identify students who may need guidance and support.

You'll need to record your attendance at teaching events using your registration card and the electronic reader in the teaching room. Just 'tap in' for every timetabled teaching event you attend. Your tap will count from 15mins before the start time and up to 15mins after the start time on your timetable.

You must not tap in for someone who is not attending the class; and also you should not tap in if you then immediately leave the teaching event. This is breaking the Student Code of Conduct and you could be fined.

Attending is especially important if you are here on a Tier 4 visa.

If you lose your card or it is faulty, go to the Student Services Hub to get a new card (a small fee is applicable for lost cards).

If you need to report an absence from a teaching event you should do so by completing the notified absence on MyEssex. We will consider the reasons and may record it as an authorised absence. Be aware that you may need to provide evidence, including medical evidence if relevant. Please see www.essex.ac.uk/see/attendance for acceptable reasons to be absent.

You will be able to check your attendance record, and notified absences on MyEssex. We are introducing this by department during the year.

Please contact your Personal Tutor, department staff or the Student Services Hub for advice and support, particularly if you are going to be absent for several weeks.

For more information on attendance, and for links to forms and guidelines visit: www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/attendance.aspx

If you need to report an absence from a teaching event, test or exam due to medical reasons, representing the University in British Universities and Colleges Sport (BUCS) competitions, or in regional, national or international competitions; being selected or training for a national sports team e.g. Home Nationals or Great Britain, on a University organised placement, or other circumstances you should do so by completing the relevant form in myEssex for a notified absence. Your department will consider the reasons and may record it as an authorised absence. Be aware that you may need to provide evidence, including medical evidence if relevant.

For placement absences please refer to your Placement Programme Handbook

3.16 Student representation, Student Staff Liaison Committees, Student Assessment of Modules and Teaching and Student Surveys

Student feedback is a vital part of the University's approach to quality assurance and enhancement. It is therefore important that you are given the opportunity to feedback and that you take time to feedback to the University. You can do this in a number of ways:

You can contact (or volunteer to be) a student representative who represent the voice of fellow students in departmental Student Staff Liaison Committees (SSLCs) and other University level committees. www.essexstudent.com/representation/coursereps/www.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/student_rep.asp www.essex.ac.uk/quality/student_representation/sslc.asp.

Every year, we will ask you to complete the Student Assessment of Module and Teaching (SAMT). This survey will be summarised and discussed by SSLCs and will inform reports written by us for central University committees as part of our quality assurance processes.

Student satisfaction surveys enable the University to gauge overall satisfaction amongst students. When the results have been reviewed and analysed, the University can then enhance your experience of learning at Essex. The National Student Survey (NSS) for final year students feeds into university league tables. NSS also lets us know how we're doing and where we can make improvements. The survey is run online and you will receive a link to the survey via email. Students not eligible for NSS will be invited to complete the UK Engagement Survey (UKES) which asks about how you spend your time on your course, what kind of learning you've taken part in and your views on your teaching and learning experience.

Health Education East of England Student Survey

Health Education England (HEE) supports the delivery of excellent healthcare and health improvement to the patients and public of England by ensuring that the workforce of today and tomorrow has the right numbers, skills, values and behaviours, at the right time and in the right place. Although HEE no longer commissions the majority of health education and training it still provides funding to support the delivery of placements within the majority of health courses.

HEE is committed to ensuring that every learner has an excellent experience of academic learning, and practical placements and are recruited and taught by the NHS values; and that these experiences continue to improve. HEE continually monitors the quality and performance of programmes to ensure that this happens including the view from the universities, the organisations taking students for placements, and from students who are undertaking programmes. Full information in relation to the quality management of universities can be found here: https://www.hee.nhs.uk/

Every year, HEE run a student survey. By completing your questionnaire you are fulfilling your responsibility to provide feedback on health programmes and their associated placements and more importantly you are helping us to ensure that your programme and future programmes are the highest quality and all your learning reflects the values of the NHS. You are also given an opportunity to raise good practice and raise any concerns you may have. Learner feedback is central to the quality processes and your input is valued.

Once you have completed your programme of study at the University of Essex, you may be contacted to confirm the details of your first post. HEE provides significant funding for students trained locally and as part of ensuring value for money it is vital to find out where you are working and what role you are undertaking. Please take the opportunity to let us know your employment details.

4. Assessment

4.1 Rules of Assessment and Credit Accumulation

www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/pgt/assess-rules.aspx

The Rules of Assessment are the rules, principles and frameworks which the University uses to calculate your course progression and final results. Some departments also have variations to the main rules, which you can find listed on our website above. If you have questions about whether a variation applies to you, contact your department.

Each module you will take will have a credit value which you are awarded if you successfully complete the module. You need to obtain a certain amount of credits to be awarded your degree, and the Rules of Assessment give you more information about this.

These decisions are made by the Board of Examiners who use the Rules of Assessment to decide:

- you can be awarded credit for the modules you have studied
- you have done enough to move on to the next stage of your course (if you are on a course which lasts more than one year)
- you need reassessment
- whether you have done enough to pass your course
- whether you are eligible to receive a merit or distinction

The following is only a summary of the key points. You should read the rules and make sure you understand them. If you need advice, ask your personal tutor, departmental administrator, or SU Advice.

If you fail your course you are not able to repeat it. The Rules of Assessment for Postgraduate Taught Awards only allow reassessment for up to a maximum of 60 credits worth of modules for taught masters degrees. The Board of Examiners will inform you if you are eligible for reassessment once it has considered your marks.

If you fail your dissertation you may be permitted by the Board of Examiners to resubmit your work, provided you meet the criteria as set out in the Rules of Assessment for Postgraduate Taught Awards. Alternatively, if you have obtained enough credits in your taught modules, you may be eligible for another award such as a postgraduate diploma or certificate.

You can decide if you want to accumulate credit by taking individual modules with the aim of achieving a postgraduate award; this is called Modular study. There are opportunities to achieve postgraduate awards through credit accumulation study in an increasing number of departments, as an alternative to standard full or part-time study. You can find more information on the 'Study by credit accumulation' webpages: www1.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/credit-accumulation.asp

Individual modules can yield 15, 20, 30 or 40 credits depending upon which department you are studying in. Each award has a defined structure, normally consisting of a combination of core, compulsory and optional modules, and requires a specific volume of credit to be achieved:

- Graduate/Postgraduate Certificates 60 credits (all taught module credits)
- Graduate/Postgraduate Diplomas 120 credits (all taught module credits)
- Masters Courses 180 credits (normally 120 credits of taught module credits and a 60 credit dissertation or equivalent)

Credit is awarded for successful completion of individual modules. Students taking a credit-accumulation route of study register for the separate modules individually and accumulate the required volume of credit for the relevant award, including the dissertation if necessary. You will be given a different registration number for each module.

The Rules of Assessment are different when you study individual modules; make sure you check the relevant Rules of Assessment for the award you're studying towards.

You will have a maximum of six years to study (this is usually five years with a sixth year for a dissertation). We measure the six years from the first module you register on towards the award. You can find out more information here: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg/pgt/modular and you should talk to your tutors about fees, and applying accumulated credit towards an award.

4.2 Extenuating Circumstances, withdrawing and intermitting

www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ext-circ.aspx

Extenuating circumstances are circumstances beyond your control which cause you to perform less well in your coursework or examinations than you might have expected. In general, extenuating circumstances will be of a medical or personal nature that affect you for any significant period of time and/or during the assessment.

You need to submit your form by the deadline given here – https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ext-circ.aspx

You will not get extra marks if you submit an extenuating circumstances form. Boards of Examiners use other methods to take into account extenuating circumstances, such as permitting further reassessment opportunities for uncapped marks.

You should read the guidance on extenuating circumstances very carefully before submitting your form and evidence. Seek advice from Students' Union Advice (www.essex.su/advice) or the Student Services Hub (www.essex.ac.uk/students/contact/default.aspx).

4.3 Withdrawing and intermitting

Thinking of leaving or taking a break from your studies?

You may experience doubts at some point during your studies, if you're thinking about leaving Essex, we're here to support you and give you the advice you need to help you make an informed choice.

Intermission is a temporary withdrawal or leave of absence from the University and provides you with the opportunity to take a break from your studies. Normally, this is for reasons beyond your control (e.g. health or personal problems) although other reasons are permitted. Intermission must be approved by the University first, so if you are thinking about intermitting, we strongly advise you to contact your department and your Student Services Hub to talk to one of our advisers.

You should also read our guidance on intermitting very carefully at www.essex.ac.uk/see/intermit. If your intermission is agreed to, we will also give you the advice and support you need to help you carry on with your studies.

Withdrawing is the formal process for permanently leaving your programme of study and the University. If you are thinking of withdrawing, you should seek advice from your Department or the Student Services Hub at the earliest opportunity. It is very important that you discuss your circumstances with the University and follow the formal procedure for withdrawing. If the university is not formally notified, then you may risk continuing to incur further tuition or accommodation fees. More advice and information is available at www.essex.ac.uk/see/withdraw.

4.4 The Marking Policy and requests for re-marking of coursework and essays

You have the right to request a re-mark of your coursework under certain circumstances which your department will advise you on. The University Marking Policy can be found here:

www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university policies/examination and assessment/marking policy. You will need to complete a form and be aware that marks can go down as well as up.

4.5 Moderation, second marking policies and External Examiners

The University policy on moderation can be found as part of the Marking Policy. When work is moderated, it means that a second member of academic staff takes a random sample of the work for a particular assessment and reviews the marks given. A moderator would not change the individual marks for the work, but would liaise with the first marker to agree whether marks should be reviewed across the particular piece of assessment or module, which may lead to marks being adjusted.

Second marking is where a second marker marks the work but has access to the first marker's marks and/or comments.

External Examiners are usually academics from other universities but may be from industry, business or the profession depending on the requirements of the course. They give an impartial view of the course and independent advice to ensure that courses at the University meet the academic standards expected across UK higher education. External Examiners write reports on the courses and modules they are responsible for which are made available to you via your department. You can find the name and institution of the External Examiner for your course and modules by looking on the Programme Specifications Catalogue and the Module Directory.

You can find out more about how the University uses External Examiners by following this link: www.essex.ac.uk/quality/external_examiners

Please note: you may not contact External Examiners directly under any circumstances. If you have any concerns about the quality and standards of your course, please contact your student rep, your Head of Department or the Students' Union.

4.6 Appeals, complaints, and fitness to practise

Appeals on academic grounds can be made following the meeting of the Board of Examiners and the publication of your results. Be aware that there are strict deadlines for the submission of the appeal form and your evidence.

We strongly advise all students thinking about making an appeal to contact Students' Union Advice.

You may not appeal against academic judgement. This means that you can't appeal against the marks you have been given by a Board of Examiners without evidence of extenuating circumstances or procedural irregularity.

More information about appeals, including the deadlines and forms to complete, can be found online at: www.essex.ac.uk/see/appeals

Making a Complaint: The University is a large community engaged in many activities of both an academic and non-academic nature. From time to time, you may feel dissatisfied with some aspect of your dealings with the University and, when that happens, it is important that the issue is dealt with constructively and as quickly as possible without risk of disadvantage or recrimination.

A complaint is defined as the expression of a specific concern about matters that affect the quality of a student's learning opportunities (this is in line with the QAA Quality Code for Higher Education, Chapter B9: Academic Appeals and Student Complaints). The University aims to resolve complaints quickly and informally.

You can find the complaints procedure and the forms here: www.essex.ac.uk/see/complaints

Fitness to practise is only applicable to students on certain professional courses (such as nursing or social work). If this applies to you, you will have been told by your department. You can find the full Fitness to Practise procedure online at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ppg

4.7 Academic Integrity and Academic Offences

The University expects students to act with honesty and integrity in relation to coursework, examinations and other assessed work, and to follow our conventions for academic writing (including appropriate referencing of sources) and ethical considerations. If you don't meet these expectations, then you may be charged with having committed an academic offence, a matter the University takes very seriously.

It is your responsibility to make yourself aware of the regulations governing examinations and how to correctly prepare your coursework. An academic offence can take place even if you didn't mean to commit one, and examples include plagiarism, falsifying data or evidence, and communicating with another candidate in an examination.

If you aren't sure what the conventions are, particularly in relation to referencing, you should ask your department, contact the Talent Development Centre, and also refer to 7. Referencing in this handbook.

More information about academic offences and getting support can be found at: www.essex.ac.uk/see/academic-offence

4.8 Ethics

All research involving human participants, whether undertaken by the University's staff or students, must undergo an ethics review by an appropriate body and ethical approval must be obtained before it commences. You can find our Guidelines for Ethical Approval of Research Involving Human Participants here - www.essex.ac.uk/reo/governance/human.aspx - along with the Ethical Approval application form.

'Human participants' are defined as including living human beings, human beings who have recently died (cadavers, human remains and body parts), embryos and foetuses, human tissue and bodily fluids, and personal data and records (such as, but not restricted to medical, genetic, financial, personnel, criminal or administrative records and test results including scholastic achievements). Research involving the NHS may require and research involving human tissue or adults lacking capacity to consent will require Health Research Authority approval.'

5. Coursework

5.1 Assignment and essay length

Please refer to the relevant module handbook on Moodle.

5.2 Coursework submission details (including FASER) and deadlines

All assignments will be submitted via the online submission facility (FASER) unless you are specifically told otherwise. Your module supervisor will advise you if the assessment is not suitable for online submission. In this instance assignments should be handed in to the course administrator on or before the deadline. The standard submission time is 12 noon on the day of the deadline. The online submission facility is available at: www.essex.ac.uk/e-learning/tools/faser

You may also access the site via your myEssex portal. Please note:

When you log on to the link, you should see a list of all your modules. If a particular module is not listed please contact your programme administrator.

- All work (essay, reference list, appendices) related to any one assignment must be submitted in one file. Only the file submitted immediately before the deadline will be treated as the formal electronic submission.
- You may only submit Word (doc, docx) or Rich Text Format (rtf) (pdf) files.
   Microsoft Works (wps) files must not be submitted. If you create the document with Works you must convert (file, save as) the file to Rich Text Format (rtf) before submitting to the system. You should follow the presentation guidelines in your student handbook.
- FASER provides you with an ideal place to keep partially completed copies of your work. Now you have no excuse to lose any of your work before the deadline.
- You can expect the submission deadline to be published in the module handbook. Deadlines will also be on FASER.
- Read the online instructions very carefully. In the event of technical problems, please contact your administrator.
- You will automatically receive an email receipt (to your University account) once you have successfully submitted your assignment. However, if you do not receive a receipt immediately this might mean you have not submitted correctly. You should try again ensuring that you have submitted to the correct assignment coded page. We have noted that on occasion some students have submitted to the test page by mistake.

FASER provides you with an ideal place to keep partially completed copies of your work. Because of this facility a request for extenuating circumstances/ request for late submission will not normally be accepted if you experience computer failure or lose any work because of a technical issue before the deadline.

5.2.1 Return of feedback and unratified marks

A deadline for return of unratified marks and feedback will also be given in your module handbook. This is normally 4 weeks from the date of submission.

5.2.2 Layout of written work

You should be aware that Module Supervisors may refuse to mark any assignment that does not conform to the following instructions:

- All work submitted for marking must be either typed or word processed.
- All work must have at least 1.5 line spacing.

- All work should be in Arial, 11 point font size.
- All work submitted for marking must be referenced using the agreed system or style as identified with the Module Supervisors (see referencing section in this handbook for further information.)
- Students should note that they must not include company/ organisation logos in their assignments without prior written permission to do so. This includes the University of Essex logo. If permission has been gained, this should be included as an appendix
- All students are required to keep a copy of all their assignments.

5.2.3 Word counts in coursework

- All coursework will have a defined word limit.
- When work is submitted the precise word count must be declared.

Part of your training in writing assignments is to produce a piece of work by a given deadline and conforming to a specified length. The work should be clear, comprehensive and concise and should answer the question. Significantly exceeding the word limit is a way of seeking an unfair advantage over other students who abide by the limits. If you exceed the word count for an assignment, marking will cease at the specified word limit.

The word count of coursework is the total number of words it contains excluding the final reference list and any appendices: all other text must be included in the word count (quotations, footnotes, references, tables etc.)

You may wish to include additional material in the form of appendices, but you are not required to do so. Students must note that:

- No marks are awarded for appendices unless it is clearly stated in the coursework guidance that the appendices will be marked
- The main body of the work (e.g. 2000 words) must be complete; markers will not read appendices in order to understand the main text.
- Appendices will only be looked at if referred to within the main text of the work.

5.3 Details of samples of coursework

In some courses previous coursework will be made available for current students to view. This must not be copied under any circumstances or in any way. Any use of copied material falls under plagiarism and constitutes an academic offence.

5.4 Deadlines and late coursework policy

All coursework must be submitted by the published deadlines, which are set out in the relevant Module Handbooks. You should use this information to assist with planning your coursework throughout the year to ensure you are able to meet all your deadlines.

As far as possible, your deadlines will have been organised to avoid clashes, but inevitably some deadlines will fall on the same day, especially for students who have optional module choices. It is an important skill to learn how to prioritise tasks and manage your time. It is your responsibility to plan your work to meet your deadlines.

Late submission of coursework policy

We have a single policy at the University of Essex for the late submission of coursework. All coursework submitted after the deadline will receive a mark of zero. No extensions will be granted in advance so you should familiarise yourself with the policy and arrangements for late submission of work. A student submitting coursework late will have the University's and School's arrangements for late submission drawn to their attention. The policy states that the mark of zero shall stand unless you submit satisfactory evidence of extenuating circumstances that indicate that you were unable to submit the work by the deadline.

If you have a disability which is preventing you from meeting deadlines, please contact a member of the Disability Service in the Student Services Hub to discuss this issue in advance of your submission dates.

More information about extenuating circumstances relating to late submission of coursework can be found below and is available at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/default.aspx

Late submission of coursework within 7 days of the deadline

If you submit your work late but within 7 days of the deadline, it will be marked and you will be notified of the mark that you would have achieved (providing the work is submitted before any model answers or other feedback has been given). The mark recorded for the late work will be zero.

If you had a good reason for missing the deadline you may make an application to the Late Submissions Committee to request that the mark be instated. You need to submit a Late Submission of Coursework form (https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/late-submission.aspx) and evidence to support your case. Both the late work and the form must be submitted as soon as possible and no later than 7 days after the original deadline.

The Late Submissions Committee will meet several times during the year to consider applications for the instatement of marks for late coursework. The School will advise you of the outcome, but it will also be your responsibility to check your marks when your coursework marks are emailed to you for checking during the year. The Late Submissions Committee may not always reach a decision and may refer your case to the Exam Board that meets at the end of the year. All decisions taken by the Late Submissions Committee are provisional, subject to the approval of the Exam Board.

Guidelines explaining what circumstances might be taken into account by the Late Submissions Committee are available here: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/late-submission.aspx.

A submission to the Late Submissions Committee does not prevent a separate claim for extenuation on other grounds to the Extenuating Circumstances Committee.

Long-term issues/extenuating circumstances

If you experience significant, long term extenuating circumstances that prevent you from submitting your work by the deadline or within 7 days of the deadline, you can submit your late work for feedback and you will be told what mark it would have achieved, providing the marked assignments or model answers have not already been released to students. The mark that will be recorded will be zero. Students in this position should submit an Extenuating Circumstances form to the Exam Board.

In considering how to proceed, you should seek advice from the Director of Education about the impact of your circumstances upon your ability to manage your workload, for example, it may not be in your best interests to return after a three week absence and spend all your time undertaking missed assignments.

Extenuating Circumstances can also relate to situations where you have submitted work on time but believe that exceptional life events have significantly impacted upon your ability to produce work to your normal standard.

Further details of the Extenuating Circumstances procedure can be found here: http://www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/ext-circ and in Section 4.2 of this handbook.

Extenuating circumstances applications for BSc and MSc Physiotherapy students – additional information.

If a decision about an extenuating circumstances application may result in a student having to withdraw from a programme it may be necessary to convene an extraordinary examination board if it is deemed that a decision is required before the next scheduled examination board.

Only an Examination Board will have the right to grant an additional attempt at a resit (i.e. a third or subsequent attempt) or to uncap a mark capped because it was a second attempt.

If a student has a level of academic failure that may require them to withdraw from the University, they will be able to continue to attend the University while awaiting the outcome of an Examination Board. However, they will not be permitted to go on placement unless they are able to redeem the failure.

Modules delivered by the School of Health and Social Care (modules beginning with the code HS) will be subject to the extenuating circumstances and late submission policy in the School of Health and Social Care. Students should familiarise themselves with the guidelines at: https://www1.essex.ac.uk/hhs/current_students/default.aspx

5.5 Essay writing support

There are many opportunities to access support within the university. Please refer to the Student Services Hub on the University website for further details or Southend-based students can visit the University Skills Centre in the Forum. Additionally, your personal tutor within the School will also be able to offer academic guidance, which may include essay-writing skills, report construction etc.

5.6 Anonymous marking in coursework policy

All coursework which contributes to your final module mark should be marked anonymously where it is practical to do so, where this is not possible, departments will inform you in advance of the assessment task.

www.essex.ac.uk/quality/university_policies/default.asp

5.7 Reassessment in Coursework

The School's policy is set out below:

MSc Physiotherapy Students

- (i) students who are required to undertake reassessment for capped marks will normally be set a new piece of coursework or will be expected to resubmit a revision of their original piece of work;
- (ii) if a student is required to undertake reassessment and has Extenuating Circumstances which have been accepted by the Board of Examiners, the student may be given the opportunity to revise and resubmit his/her coursework, or alternatively complete a new assignment.
- (iii) in the case of the research project, journal or coursework which cannot be replicated over the summer, a student may be permitted to revise and submit the original work or may be set alternative coursework.

The School will send you details of the assignments which you are required to undertake. If you haven't received anything within three weeks of the results being published, you must contact the administrator identified in the relevant module guide.

MSc Sports and Exercise Science Students

If the Board of Examiners has required you to complete essays or assignments over the vacation, the School will send you a letter by email with further information. Please check your Essex email account regularly once your results have been published. The School will then send you details of the assignments which you are required to undertake. You should note that this will, in most cases, take the form of a substantial piece of work equivalent to the entire coursework component of the module. If you haven't received anything within three weeks of the results being published, you must contact the School or the Student Progress Team.

5.8 Referencing in Coursework

Please refer to 7. Referencing and good academic practice for full details.

6. Examinations

6.1 Examination regulations

The General Regulations which govern examinations can be found via the website here online, namely under Regulations relating to Academic Affairs: www.essex.ac.uk/governance/regulations

Attendance at examinations is compulsory. For exams that are more than an hour long, you will not be allowed to enter the examination room if you arrive later than 55 minutes after the start of the exam. If your exam is only an hour long, you will only be admitted up to ten minutes after the start of the exam.

6.2 Access to exam scripts

If you want to see your exam script, you should normally make the request within four weeks of the exam to the department which is responsible for that module. The department should either: let you see the script in the presence of one of the staff responsible for teaching the module or give you a copy or summary of the examiners' comments on your performance.

6.3 Calculators

If you are allowed to use a calculator in your examinations, the only models you are permitted to use are the Casio FX-83GT PLUS or the Casio FX-85GT PLUS.

A limited number of Casio calculators will be available to borrow on the day of your exam from the Exams Office on a first-come, first-served basis, on production of your registration card. Please note financial calculators will not be available.

6.4 General information about exams and examination results

You can find your personalised exam timetable online here - www.essex.ac.uk/examtimes the exam timetable will be published on the date shown at www1.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/dates-and-timetables.aspx.

You must bring your registration card and exam entry form with you to the exam. You will not be allowed entry without them. Remember to check your exam entry form carefully and contact the Examinations Office if there are any errors.

6.5 Anonymous marking policy in examinations

All formal examinations at the University of Essex are marked anonymously.

6.6 Reassessment in examinations

You can find information relating to resitting exams at: www.essex.ac.uk/students/exams-and-coursework/resits.aspx

Remember that reassessment in examinations (and coursework) carries a fee.

6.7 Observed Structured Clinical Examinations

Several courses within SRES include examination by Observed Structured Clinical examinations (OSCEs). The rules relating to examinations of this format are as for any other assessment. Examinations may be single or double marked at the time. You may have the examination recorded for the purposes of the assessment by the external examiner.

7. Referencing

7.1 Referencing and good academic practice

Respecting authorship through good academic practice is one of the key values of higher education in the UK.

The University takes academic offences very seriously. You should read the sections of this handbook which refer to referencing, coursework and examinations very carefully.

Referencing is a key academic/scientific skill. It is how you will acknowledge all sources used within a piece of work. You must reference all works used directly (quotes) and indirectly (paraphrasing and summarising).

Referencing allows you to give credit to authors'/researchers' concepts and ideas/ideas and results, demonstrate your breadth of reading and knowledge on a subject, direct readers to your sources, and avoid plagiarism.

You should always use the best available sources of evidence, such as peer reviewed journals and recognised books.

To find out about your departmental referencing style, and for help with referencing, visit the library website: libwww.essex.ac.uk/referencing.htm

7.2 SRES Referencing Guidelines

To find out about the referencing style used within the School of Sport, Rehabilitation and Exercise Sciences and for help with referencing, visit the library website:

http://libwww.essex.ac.uk/referencing.htm and select the relevant School from the drop-down box.

SRES students will be expected to use the Vancouver (Cite them Right, non-superscripted) style of referencing, and apply this correctly and consistently across their academic work.

NB – MSc Physiotherapy students study some modules that are shared with School of Health and Social Care students. As such, these students are expected to use the referencing style adopted by the School of Health and Social Care, Harvard (Cite them Right), for these modules.

7.3 The University Academic Offences Procedure

Please see section 4.6 Academic Integrity and Academic Offences and 5.9 Referencing in Coursework and remember that the Academic Offences Procedure applies to all students: www.essex.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/academic-offences.aspx.

8. Practicalities: Getting started and IT matters

8.1 Registration

All new and returning students are required to register at the start of each academic year. The process for new students includes activating an IT account, completing Pre-Arrival Online, and attending the University's main registration event.

New students: www.essex.ac.uk/students/new/registration.aspx

Returning students are required to complete Online Registration. In addition to this, returning students who hold Tier 4 visas are required to complete a document check in person at the University's main registration event. Returning students: www.essex.ac.uk/students/course-admin/registration.aspx.

8.1.2 Module enrolment

Students registered on programmes of study leading to a degree may have options to select as part of their course structure. The eNROL system is an online tool to review and select available modules specific to a particular course and year of study. All new and returning students should use the online system prior to the start of each academic year. Returning students will access the system from the April preceding the next academic year. New students will access the system from the end of August. Departments will approve student selections within a few weeks of eNROL use and timetables will take module enrolment into account when planning for the next academic year. Early module enrolment will ensure students know which modules to attend and where the lectures and classes are held.

8.1.3 Award documents

As your studies draw to a close, and once your exam board has met, it takes up to five working days for your results to be confirmed. You will be sent an email to inform you when the results are live on a password protected web page. Graduating students will receive a degree certificate at Graduation.

8.2 Find Your Way and room numbering system

Find Your Way is our interactive campus map app. Download it to help you find any location on campus and get directions quickly and easily. There's also a handy web version - https://findyourway.essex.ac.uk/

If you're looking for a specific room, follow these rules.

If the room number has three parts and the first is alphabetical e.g. TC.1.20 then the room is in one of the outer buildings. The format is building.floor.room. The first part indicates the building - "TC" is the Teaching Centre and "LH" is the Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall. The second part tells you the floor and the third the room number. For example, LH.1.12 is Ivor Crewe Lecture Hall, floor 1, room 12.

If the number has three parts and the first contains numbers and letters e.g. 5N.7.16, then the room is in square 4 or 5. The format is entrance.floor.room. The first part tells you the square and corner (eg 4S is the south corner of square 4), which matches the labels on the entrances (eg door 4NW is next to The Store). The second part is the floor and the third part the room. For example, 5NW.6.12 is in the northwest (NW) corner of Square 5 (entrance "5NW"), floor 6, room 12.

If the number has two elements and the second element has three digits e.g. 4.722, the room is in the Maths/Social Studies/Rab Butler/Square 1 building area. The first number shows the floor and the last three digits show the room number.

Also... if the last three digits are 700-799 the room is off Square 1, and if the last three digits are 500-599 the room is in the Square 2 area (Computer Science). For example, 5.512 is room 512, floor 5.

8.3 IT support

Visit our website to set up your IT account and password, register an external email address and passphrase and request a reminder for a forgotten passphrase: www.essex.ac.uk/it/getaccount.

8.4 Immigration Information

If you are a citizen of a country that is not part of the European Economic Area or Switzerland it is likely that you will require a visa to enter or remain in the UK to study. For Tier 4 students, the Home Office attach conditions to your Tier 4 leave that restrict study, work and access to state benefits, some nationals have to register with the Police. The University has many duties as a Tier 4 sponsor and must ensure we remain compliant in order to retain our Tier 4 licence. # 12. Links and Further Useful Information for Students in the School of Sport, Rehabilitation and Exercise Sciences

12.1 School Procedures Relating to Absence and Illness for Pre-Registration/CPD studentsAttendance requirements for pre-registration programmes are specified by regulatory bodies. If a student is unable to meet these requirements they may be ineligible for the award they are studying for and will be unable to become a registered practitioner. Please see programme specific information for details.

Procedure for managing late, partial or poor attendance

This procedure is designed to clarify the process for managing poor attendance for teaching events and placements. Poor attendance is defined as late or partial attendance or complete absence from a teaching event or placement.

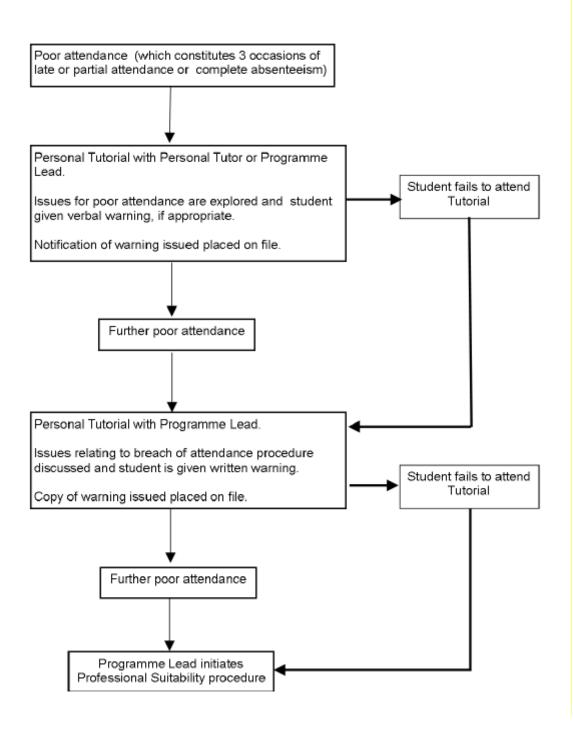

As part of attendance monitoring processes, module supervisors will report incidents of poor attendance to the student's personal tutor and the programme lead. Three occasions of poor attendance in a module (non-, late or partial attendance) without acceptable corroborating or explanatory evidence will normally be deemed unacceptable and will trigger this procedure. A tutorial will be scheduled for the earliest possible opportunity to explore the reasons for poor attendance. Students will be made aware of the possible consequences of continued poor attendance behaviour and will normally be given a verbal warning in the first instance. Notification that a verbal warning has been given will be placed on the student's file.

If a second incidence is identified, a tutorial will be scheduled with the programme lead and a written warning will be issued. A copy of the warning will be placed on the student's file.

Any further incidences or if the student fails to attend any meeting relating to their attendance, the programme lead will initiate the fitness to practice process.

12.2 Confidentiality Policy

Any potential breaches in confidentiality will firstly be discussed within programme teams and referred to the Head of School for advice.

12.3 Guidance re Pandemics for healthcare students at the University of Essex

Any situation regarding a pandemic is dynamic and guidance will be released as any situation progresses. The following guidance is to ensure you are aware of the expectations we would have of you if such an eventuality arose:

- 1. Please follow government (Department of Health), University of Essex, and regulatory body guidelines and policy.
- 2. Whilst undertaking your placements your supernumerary status must be maintained
- 3. You must continue to work (directly or indirectly) with a mentor/ practice teacher.
- 4. If, due to staff shortages on placement you have difficulties with spending sufficient time working with your mentor or practice educator you must contact your link lecturer/visiting tutor.
- 5. Students who have joined bank/ agency organisations to get paid work as HCAs may be asked to work more frequently. It is important for students to recognise that this work must not be undertaken at the expense of their studies. This paid HCA work will not count as 'practice hours'.
- 6. Wherever possible placements will not be interrupted or terminated, however students must follow guidance regarding attendance at hospital if they are personally experiencing symptoms. Any student requiring sick leave must inform their mentor/ placement and the programme administration team at the earliest opportunity.

Our key priority during any potential pandemic is that professional standards, regulations and health services are maintained and we play a significant role in this.

We will of course update advice and guidance as required, but please contact your link lecturer/visiting tutor if you have any further questions regarding this matter.
